Понятие об инфинитиве глагола

Форма глаголов в инфинитиве совпадает с основой глагола. Отличительным признаком формы инфинитива глагола является обычно частица to, которая ставится перед глаголом:

to eat есть (кушать)

to speak говорить

Глагол to be = быть в 3-м лице единственного числа

В третьем лице ед. числа глагол to be имеет форму is, которая соответствует в русском языке форме 3-го лица ед. числа глагола быть — есть. Однако в русском языке глагол есть в большинстве случаев опускается.

Сравните:

My name is Ann.

Мое имя Анна.

Практика речи: Семья и родственные отношения.

Грамматика: Предложение. Общие сведения.

Цель: Формирование коммуникативных компетенций, овладение лексикой и грамматикой

В результате освоения темы студент должен

знать: базовые нормы употребления лексики, фонетики и грамматики

Теоретическая часть:

Families come in all shapes and sizes nowadays. At present more and more families are divorced and then their parents remarry. That's why more children have step-brothers, step-sisters, half-brothers and half-sisters. No wonder that there can be some problems in the family relations. Members of many families suffer from misunderstanding because there is a great difference in their tastes and opinions. Besides, children don't like it when there is too much control from their parents because they want to solve their problems independently. On the other hand, if the members of the family love each other there can be no or little argument and the family lives happily.

There are a lot of problems and conflicts that appear between teenagers and their parents because they don't understand each other. Generation gap will always exist not only because teenagers and their parents enjoy listening to different kinds of music. A lot of things are different: tastes, manners, behavior and the stuff like that. Some parents don't want to understand modern views, ideas and system of values so teens are afraid to tell them about their private life. Another reason is that parents want their children to be clever and learn harder. They are always nagging when their children do badly at school. They make teens do their homework. Parents don't want to understand that there can be more important things than good marks in the school-leaving certificate. So, it's necessary to bridge the generation gap and the only way to do it is for parents and children to speak frankly to each other and try to come to an agreement.

Предложением называется сочетание слов, выражающее законченную мысль. Слова, входящие в состав предложения и отвечающие на какой-нибудь вопрос, называются членами предложения. Члены предложения делятся на главные и второстепенные.

Главные (main) члены предложения:

подлежащее (subject),

сказуемое (predicate).

Второстепенные (secondary) члены предложения:

дополнение (object),

определение (attribute),

обстоятельства (adverbial modifiers).

Подлежащим называется член предложения, обозначающий предмет или лицо, о котором что-либо говорится в предложении. Подлежащее отвечает на вопрос кто? или что?

Сказуемым называется член предложения, обозначающий то, что говорится о подлежащем. Сказуемое отвечает на вопросы: что делает подлежащее, что делается с подлежащим, кем или чем является подлежащее?

Дополнением называется второстепенный член предложения, который обозначает предмет и отвечает на вопросы, соответствующие в русском языке вопросам косвенных падежей как с предлогом, так и без него: кого? чего?, что?, кому?, чему?, кем?, чем?, о ком?, о чем?

Обстоятельствами (adverbial modifiers) называются второстепенные члены предложения, которые обозначают как или при каких обстоятельствах (т.е. где, когда, почему, зачем и т.д.) совершается действие.

Обстоятельства могут обозначать:

- 1) время (adverbial modifier of time)
- 2) место (adverbial modifier of place)
- 3) образ действия (adverbial modifier of manner)
- 4) причину (adverbial modifier of cause)
- 5) цель (adverbial modifier of purpose)
- 6) степень (adverbial modifier of degree)

Вопросы и задания:

1. Переведите текст и составьте свои собственные предложения с выражениями, выделенными курсивом:

Belonging to a family is one bond everyone in the world shares, but family patterns vary from country to country. Nine out of ten people in the USA live as members of families and they value their families highly. "Families", they say, "give us a sense of belonging and tradition, strength and purpose. The things we need most deeply in our lives – love, communication, respect and good relationships – have their beginnings in the family". Families serve many functions. They provide conditions in which children can be born and brought up. Parents teach their children values (that is, what they think is important) as well as daily skills. They also teach them common practices and customs, such as respect for elders and celebrating holidays. But the most important job for the family is to give emotional support and security".

A traditional American family is one in which both parents are living together with their children. The father goes out and works and the mother stays home and brings up the children. There are usually two children in the family. But most American families today don't fit this image. The biggest change is that in many families both parents work. The majority of women say that they work because it is an economic necessity. Certainly, when both parents work, they have less time to spend with their children and with each other. Often families stop eating their meals together and thereby lose an important time to share the events of the day. Nearly half of the children are cared for by grandparents, daycare centers or baby-sitters. Some companies are trying to help working parents by offering flexible work hours.

Another big change in American family life is the increase in the number of families that are headed by only one person, usually the mother. Getting a divorce is quite easy, but is one of the most stressful events in the life of grown-ups. Many divorced men are required by law to help their wives support their children, but not all of them fulfill this responsibility and a lot of mothers have financial difficulties. Some of these difficulties are relieved by government programmes providing help to low-income families, but still, poverty affects the way in which the children in these families grow up.

Many single adult Americans today are waiting longer to get married because they want to graduate from a university or college, others want to become more established in their chosen profession.

The parents' role is finished when they've brought up their children to the end of formal education. After their graduation the children often try to achieve complete independence, leaving home and even the native town.

2. Преобразуйте (если необходимо) слова в скобках так, чтобы они соответствовали содержанию текста:

Years ago it was important to have large families with many 1(child) so that the family remained strong. If you were rich, you needed sons to inherit your property. If you were poor, you needed sons to help with your work and take it over when you were old. Rich or poor you needed daughters to help with the running of a large household.

Not only children were important. Everybody in the family was important: grandmothers, aunts, uncles, cousins, and cousins of cousins. Even when branches of the family quarreled (and they often did) at least they were still there, and that gave people a sense of stability and order.

Nowadays, things are 2(differ). Young people move away from the places where they were born, and they take 3(they) immediate family (wife and children) with 4(they). Slowly, they lose touch with their distant cousins and their great-aunts. Their own family unit 5(become) more and more important, as they forget their other relations.

In Britain, families have been getting smaller and smaller too. People have fewer 6(child) because children are expensive and they take up room. Who can afford a large house? Who can afford food for more than three children when the cost of living 7(to be) so high? And now, there is the problem of 8(overpopulate) too. We were always being told in Britain that a family should have no more than two children. People can't have big families when they are living in a small space. So they live in tiny houses or 9(flat) and they get more and more isolated. Sometimes they live very close to other people but they don't get to know each other. They only have each other to talk to, so they get bored and cross with each other. What is to be done?

3. Дайте русские эквиваленты: 1. to run a large house 2. to take immediate family with them 3. to give people a sense of stability and order 4. to lose touch with other relations 5. to live in tiny houses 6. to get bored and cross with each other 7. to get more and more isolated

4. Вставьте нужные предлоги:

- | | |
|------------------------------------|--------------------------------------|
| 1. bad ____ children | 6. surprised ____ the suggestion |
| 2. short ____ time | 7. responsible ____ the job |
| 3. divorced ____ his wife | 8. typical ____ her |
| 4. married ____ an American | 9. satisfied ____ the job |
| 5. sick and tired ____ the excuses | 10. accustomed ____ this way of life |

5. Ответьте на вопросы:

- 1) What are the advantages and disadvantages of having several brothers or sisters?
- 2) Are you close to your family?
- 3) Do you spend most of your free time at home or with your friends?
- 4) What can be gained from grandparents?
- 5) How can the relationship with grandparents differ from that with parents?

6. Составьте свое генеалогическое древо и подробно расскажите о каждом члене своей семьи.

7. Проанализируйте следующие предложения, назовите главные и второстепенные члены.

1. He is one of the best students.
2. Our University is quite large and old.
3. The course of study lasts five years.
4. The academic year is divided into two terms.

Понятие об артикле. Неопределенный артикль.

1. Артикли, это служебные слова, которые не имеют самостоятельного значения и являются особыми определителями существительных.

В английском языке существует два артикля — неопределенный a и определенный the. Оба артикля являются неизменяемыми словами. Если сравнить два таких предложения, как Вчера в витрине магазина я видел очень красивый костюм и Разве костюм уже продан? то станет ясно, что по характеру высказывания они отличаются друг от друга. Если в первом предложении только называется предмет, говорится, что увидели предмет, который по своим общим свойствам и признакам относится к тому или иному классу предметов (в данном случае к классу костюмов, причем не просто к классу костюмов, а к более узкому классу — очень красивых костюмов, а не пальто, платьев и т.д.), то во втором примере данный предмет выделен в сознании говорящего и слушающего из класса подобных предметов, т.е. говорящий подразумевает костюм, который вы мне вчера показывали, или костюм, который я вчера примерял и т.д.

В первом примере слово костюм при переводе на английский язык было бы употреблено с неопределенным артиклем, во втором — с определенным.

Существительное с неопределенным артиклем дает понятие о предмете, дает название предмета, название класса, к которому принадлежит предмет:

This is a pen. Это ручка (а не карандаш, не книга и т.п.).

Существительное с определенным артиклем обычно обозначает не понятие, не название, а конкретный предмет, конкретного представителя данного класса предметов:

The pen is black. Ручка черная (именно эта ручка черная, а не какая-либо другая ручка).

2. Место артикля. Артикль (определенный и неопределенный) ставится перед тем существительным, к которому он относится. Если существительное имеет при себе определение, выраженное прилагательным или порядковым числительным, то артикль ставится перед всем словосочетанием:

the black pen черная ручка

the first plan первый план

3. Неопределенный артикль. Неопределенный артикль a может употребляться только с именами существительными в ед. числе, так как он произошел от числительного, означающего один:

Send me a pen. Пришлите мне ручку (одну ручку), т.е. предмет, который по своим общим признакам и назначению называется ручкой.

В русском языке значение неопределенного артикля в этом примере можно выразить такими словами: Пришлите мне одну из ручек (какую-нибудь, любую ручку; ручку, а не карандаш).

Поскольку значение неопределенного артикля происходит от значения числительного один, он не употребляется с существительными во мн. числе. Поэтому, когда необходимо назвать группу предметов, обладающих одними и теми же общими признаками, не употребляется никакой артикль:

Send me ___ pens. Пришлите мне ручки.

Send me ___ seven pens. Пришлите мне семь ручек.

Однажды богатая англичанка, которую звали миссис Джонсон, решила как можно веселее отпраздновать свой день рождения. Она пригласила много гостей и хорошего певца. Певец был беден, но у него был очень хороший голос. Ровно в шесть часов певец приехал в дом миссис Джонсон. Когда он вошел, зал (hall) был полон гостей, которые сидели за большим столом посередине зала.

Гости ели, шутили, смеялись и громко разговаривали. Певец приветствовал их и готов был присоединиться к ним, но миссис Джонсон сказала следующее:

„Мы рады, сэр, что вы приехали. Вы будете петь после того, как закончится обед. Я позову вас, когда мы будем готовы вас слушать. А сейчас идите на кухню и тоже пообедайте.“

Певец очень рассердился, но ничего не сказал и вышел из зала. Он хотел уехать из дома миссис Джонсон, но потом решил остаться и дать (to teach) ее богатым гостям хороший урок. Когда певец появился в кухне, слуги (servants) обедали. Певец вместе с ними съел обед из трех блюд, поблагодарил всех и сказал: „Ну, а теперь я спою для вас...“ Он начал петь и спел много прекрасных песен. Вскоре миссис Джонсон позвала певца в зал.

— Ну, сэр, мы готовы.

— Вы готовы? — спросил певец. — Что же вы готовы делать?

— Слушать вас. — сказала миссис Джонсон сердитым голосом.

— Слушать меня? Но я уже пел. Я больше не смогу петь сегодня.

— Где вы пели? — спросила она еще более сердито.

— В кухне. Я всегда пою для тех, с кем обедаю.

This year I have my birthday party at home. My parents and I prepared for this day. We invited my friends and relatives to the party.

I celebrated my birthday on Sunday. I got up early in the morning. My father and I went to the shop and to the market to buy everything we needed for the party.

My mother stayed at home. She made cakes and laid the table. At four o'clock my relatives and friends came to congratulate me and I was glad to see them. They brought flowers, books, sweets and presents. I thanked them all.

Определенный артикль употребляется с именами существительными как в ед., так и во мн. числе в тех случаях, когда и говорящему, и слушающему ясно, о каком конкретном предмете идет речь, когда сообщаются дополнительные данные о конкретном предмете или о конкретных предметах в данной ситуации:

The pen is bad. Ручка плохая.

Прилагательное плохая в данном предложении обозначает не общий признак, а конкретное качество определенного, единственного в данной ситуации предмета.

Значение определенного артикля очень близко к значению таких слов, как этот, тот, тот самый, который, потому что определенный артикль происходит от указательного местоимения, означающего тот.

а) с именами собственными:

Klin Клин

Peter Петр

б) перед нарицательными именами существительными с определением, выраженным указательным или притяжательным местоимением, или количественным числительным:

That plan is fine. Тот план хорош.

6. Заполните пропуски нужными предложениями:

I would like to tell you all 1 my home. Firstly, I must tell you that I live 2 Pyatigorsk. It's a very fascinating town 3 old traditions.

We have sprung up 4 the town's old centre. We live in one 5 such newly built areas, though it isn't quite close 6 the town centre.

We moved 7 our new flat five years ago. It's a four-room flat 8 the third floor 9 a seventeen-storied block of flats. Certainly there are all modern conveniences in our flat. It's fairly cosy. The layout is good. The rooms are light, though not very large. It's quite a modern looking flat 10 two balconies looking 11 on the park in front of the building. Every time I walk into my flat, I feel an immediate sense 12 warmth and security.

Our sitting room is quite a big room, about 20 square metres. My mother doesn't like much furniture 13 the flat. So in the sitting room there are two comfortable chairs and a sofa, a coffee-table, a television set and a video 14 the corner of the room and a piano. Of course, there is a carpet 15 the floor. We usually relax, watch television, listen to music in the sitting-room or have dinner on special occasions. We have two pictures on the wall of our room. They are nice copies of my favourite painting 16 Levitan. They make the room comfortable.

I am happy to have a room _17_ my own. It's the smallest room in the flat but I try to keep it tidy and cosy. There is a single-bed, a desk, a personal computer, a stereo-system, a big bookcase and a wardrobe in my room. There is a little rug on the floor. There are some posters of my favourite pop star _18_ the bed.

You may be surprised to hear when I tell you that the most popular and favourite place with all of us is a kitchen. We spend most of our time in the kitchen, not eating in fact, we like just to sit and talk there.

Our kitchen is comparatively large and looks the usual modern kitchen you can see in many other homes. The air is usually filled _19_ the delicious smells of my mother's cooking. There is a cooker, a fridge, a washing machine, a dishwasher, a microwave, a kitchen table with four stools and some cupboards in it. There are some lovely pictures on the walls. We have regular meals in the kitchen. My family like to sit chatting for hours after work in the evenings. But I have to bring a chair and take it _20_ when the whole family are at table. But it's not much trouble.

Ah, yes, I haven't mentioned the hall or as we call it the corridor. It's long but slightly narrow. Or perhaps it looks narrow to me because my brother Oleg keeps his bike in it.

When my friends come to my house they often describe it as a dream house, but to me it's just 'home sweet home.'

7. Переведите:

I live in a big house. Like many houses it is a two-storey brick building with a garden around it. On the ground floor we have a sitting room, a dining room and a kitchen. The kitchen is rather big and comfortable. My sister Alice helps me to cook in the kitchen.

When we have guests we have dinner in the dining room. After dinner we usually go to the sitting room. Our sitting room is very cosy. There isn't much furniture in it. There is a sofa opposite the fireplace and two armchairs near it. There are some pictures on the walls. In the middle of the room there is a big carpet. We have a TV set in the corner. Father likes to watch TV in the evenings.

Our bedrooms are upstairs, on the first floor. There are not many things in our bedroom. There are only two beds, a mirror, a dressing table and a wardrobe in it. We have two bedrooms for guests. They are rather small. Our bedrooms are cold. In winter we heat them because there is no central heating. Few people have central heating in their own houses.

My father's study room is downstairs. It faces the garden. It is light and spacious. There are a lot of books in the bookcases and a lot of paper on the desk. There is also a computer on his desk. There are a few chairs in his room.

Специальными вопросами называются такие вопросы, которые относятся к отдельным членам предложения и начинаются с вопросительного слова. Так, вопрос, относящийся к именной части сказуемого, начинается с вопросительного слова what? что?:

What is this? Что это такое? It is a pen. Это ручка.

Вопросительное слово what? означает также кто?, если именной частью сказуемого является существительное, обозначающее профессию, социальное положение, партийную принадлежность:

What are you? Кто вы (по профессии)? I am a teacher. Я преподаватель.

Вопросительное слово what означает какой (какая, какое, какие), если оно стоит перед существительным:

What book is this? Какая это книга? It is Anna Karenina. Это „Анна Каренина“.

Как видно из примера, вопрос такого типа не является вопросом о качестве предмета, и ответом на него не может быть определение, выраженное качественным прилагательным. Для того, чтобы задать вопрос о качестве, употребляется словосочетание What kind of ... ? какого рода (вида) что за... ?

Вопросительное слово where? где?, куда? употребляется в вопросах, относящихся к обстоятельству места: Where is the book? Где книга? It is on the table. Она на столе.

Вопросы и задания:

1. Прочтите текст и ответьте на вопросы:

1. Is the city life stressful? Why?
2. Would you like to change the place you live?

Lots of people prefer living in cities rather than in the countryside because it is often easier to get good education and find a well-paid job. Besides, there is usually a wide choice of public transport, so you don't need to own a car, which is necessary when you live in the countryside. What is more, there are a lot of interesting things to do and places to see. If you live in the village, you have almost nowhere to go, but if you live in the city, you can eat in good restaurants, visit museums, and go to the theatre. All in all, city life is full of variety, and you will never feel bored.

However, some people choose to live in the countryside because living in a city is often very expensive. It is particularly difficult to find good cheap accommodation. Public transport is sometimes crowded in the rush hour, and even the parks can become very crowded especially on weekends when it seems that every city-dweller is looking for some open space or green grass. On the contrary, the air in the countryside is very clean and there are no noisy crowds, so living in the country can be useful for your health. Last of all, despite all the crowds, it is still possible to feel very lonely in a city because people often don't know their neighbors whereas in the countryside people know each other and you have lots of friends.

Renat: Hi, Alina. It's nice to see you. How are you?

Alina: Hi, Renat. I'm fine, thank you. And how are things with you?

Renat: I'm very well. Natalia Ivanovna asked me to tell you about the Friday essay.

Alina: Which Friday essay?

Renat: Well, last time we had Russian, she set us creative home work: to write an essay about your city. As you were absent, you probably don't know about it.

Alina: Ah, I see. Thanks for telling me. I will prepare a nice piece of work. I like writing essays.

Renat: As for me, I don't. If you helped me, that would be great.

Alina: No problem. What aspects of the city do we need to cover in this essay?

Renat: She said we should write a little bit about its history, some sentences about its sights and a couple of words about your personal attitude towards the city.

Alina: I see. At first we need to write the opening lines. For example, the city where I live is situated in the North Caucasian District of Russia. It derived its name from the fused Russian words "five mountains". The city indeed is surrounded by five peaks of the Beshtau Mountain.

Renat: These are good lines for the beginning.

Alina: Further on we can mention that our city is one of the oldest spa resorts in Russia having 50 different mineral springs.

Renat: Another point is that a famous Russian writer Mikhail Lermontov was shot at Pyatigorsk.

Alina: Yes, that can be also mentioned. What about the history of the city?

Renat: All I know is that Peter the Great was the first to notice and to foster the earliest scientific studies of Pyatigorsk mineral springs. At the end of the 18th century on top of Mount Mashuk the first settlement was founded.

Alina: That's quite enough about the history of the city.

Renat: More than that, we should mention that these mineral springs are found not only in Pyatigorsk, but in other surrounding cities, such as Yessentuki, Kislovodsk, etc.

Alina: What about the sights? What else do we have except the springs?

Renat: Well, there is the State memorial estate of Mikhail Lermontov, which was founded in 1973, the Aeolian harp, Diana's grotto, the Necropolis at the Mashuk Mountain foot, and many other places of interest.

Alina: To conclude we need to express our own attitude towards the city. What can you say?

Renat: First of all, I really like this city and I'm happy to be born and raised here. Secondly, I'm proud to be living in the city where many prominent people have lived at certain stages of their life.

Alina: Who do you mean?

Renat: I know that Pyatigorsk has often been visited by Pushkin, Glinka, Tolstoy, Shalyapin, Griboyedov.

Alina: I see. That information will result into an excellent and well-structured essay.

5. Переведите:

There are many beautiful cities and towns in the world. I would like to visit some of them, to see with my own eyes what I have read or heard about. But there is no place like home. I love my native city. I was born here and live with my parents. It's not the capital, but it is a wonderful place to live.

My city is old and modern at the same time. It is old because it was founded in the 11th century. At that time its streets were narrow, dark and dirty. Now my city looks modern because of its architecture. Almost all the buildings were built after the war. The streets and avenues are wide and clean.

I live in the main street. It is the widest street in the city. A lot of cars, buses and trolley-buses run fast along it. If you want to see the places of interest in our city, you can walk along the main street. It leads to the main square. It will be a short trip, but you can see a lot: a cinema and a concert hall, an art gallery and museums, a stadium, a zoo and a large park.

Our art gallery is next to the main post office. Opposite the post office there is a modern hotel. If you turn to the left, you can see a theatre. And in front of the theatre there is a museum of history and culture. Walk two blocks and you'll come to a monument to our famous writer and a fountain in the park. If you want to visit our zoo, take a bus and get off on the third bus stop. Not far from the traffic lights you will see the entrance to the zoo. Near it there is a circus. Children and tourists can't but visit it. They admire funny clowns, tamed animals, miracles and magic. There are only some churches in our city. Every evening we can hear the sound of the bells.

Just come and see everything with your own eyes. It is better to see than to hear.

Теоретическая часть:

Why should you know your personality and character traits? Because they are big predictors of your behavior and attitude in life.

The world we live in is different from what it was ten, five, or even one year ago. Thanks to social media, easy to use communication tools, and global migration, the pool of possibilities and available information to browse through is constantly expanding.

Without a clear idea of one's own preferences, making the 'right choice' can be extremely difficult, and confusing. Knowing the environments in which our personality traits can serve our best interests will help decrease this 'paralysis by analysis' state that many might fall into.

Personality is unique to each individual, and knowing what makes us, 'us', can lead to more life satisfaction, better life choices, and overall success, in both personal and professional spheres.

While character and personality are both used to describe someone's behaviors, the two examine very different aspects of that individual. That's because personality is more visible and easier to spot, while character is revealed through time, with varying situations.

In more concrete terms:

"Personality is easy to read, and we're all experts at it. We judge people [as] funny, extroverted, energetic, optimistic, confident—as well as overly serious, lazy, negative, and shy—if not upon first meeting them, then shortly thereafter. And though we may need more than one interaction to confirm the presence of these sorts of traits, by the time we decide they are, in fact, present we've usually amassed enough data to justify our conclusions.

Character, on the other hand, takes far longer to puzzle out. It includes traits that reveal themselves only in specific—and often uncommon—circumstances, traits like honesty, virtue, and kindness." (Lickerman, 2011)

Указательные местоимения

Местоимения this и these указывают на лицо или предмет, находящиеся близко к говорящему, а местоимения that и those указывают на лицо, предмет или действие, отдаленные по месту или по времени от говорящего.

These books are old. Эти книги старые.

This car is too expensive. Этот автомобиль слишком дорогой.

This house is bigger than that house. Этот дом больше, чем тот.

That man is our teacher. Тот человек — наш учитель.

This is my house and that is yours. Это мой дом, а то — твой.

Местоимение one, (во множественном числе — ones) используются, как заменители существительных, обозначающих предметы, чтобы не повторять их два раза:
This book is more interesting than that one. Эта книга более интересна, чем та.
These tomatoes are fresher than those ones. Эти помидоры более свежие, чем те.

Вопросы задания:

1. Переведите текст и определите свой тип характера:

Personality type code stands for a preference in your style of thinking or behaving.

I/E: Introversion or Extraversion

The Introversion/Extraversion dimension describes how a person manages their energy.

Introverts are energized by spending quiet time alone or with a small group. They tend to be more reserved and thoughtful.

Extraverts are energized by spending time with people and in busy, active surroundings. They tend to be more expressive and outspoken.

S/N: Sensing or iNtuition

The Sensing/Intuition dimension describes how an individual processes information.

Sensors focus on their five senses and are interested in information they can directly see, hear, feel, and so on. They tend to be hands-on learners and are often described as "practical."

Intuitives focus on a more abstract level of thinking; they are more interested in theories, patterns, and explanations. They are often more concerned with the future than the present and are often described as "creative."

T/F: Thinking or Feeling

The Thinking/Feeling dimension describes how people make decisions.

Thinkers tend to make decisions with their heads; they are interested in finding the most logical, reasonable choice.

Feelers tend to make decisions with their hearts; they are interested in how a decision will affect people, and whether it fits in with their values.

J/P: Judging or Perceiving

The Judging/Perceiving dimension describes how people approach structure in their lives.

Judgers appreciate structure and order; they like things planned, and dislike last-minute changes.

Perceivers appreciate flexibility and spontaneity; they like to leave things open so they can change their minds.

2. Соедините слова левой колонки с их краткой интерпретацией в правой:

Below you will find a brief interpretation of each personality trait.

|-----------------------------------|--|
| 1. Agreeableness | a. You appear to be an introvert -- less socially outgoing and more reserved than most other people. Introverts lack the exuberance, energy, and activity levels of extraverts. They tend to be quiet, low-key, deliberate, and less involved in the social world. Their lack of social involvement should not be interpreted as shyness or depression. Introverts simply need less stimulation than extraverts and more time alone. |
| 2. Openness to Experiences | b. You may have little self-discipline, do not act dutifully, and rarely aim for any kind of achievement. You may prefer spontaneous over planned activities or behavior. People often act impulsively, which may land them into trouble more than once. They may also struggle with success and achievement in school, work, or in their relationships. |
| 3. Extraversion | c. People tend to have more conventional and traditional interests. You likely prefer the plain, straightforward, and obvious over the complex, ambiguous, and subtle. People tend to regard the arts and sciences with suspicion, believing these endeavors of little practical use. Closed people prefer familiarity over novelty, and tend to be more conservative and resistant to change. |
| 4. Emotional Stability | d. You are suspicious and antagonistic towards others. Disagreeable individuals place self-interest above getting along with others. They are | generally unconcerned with others' well-being, and are less likely to extend themselves for other people. Sometimes their skepticism about others' motives causes them to be suspicious, unfriendly, and uncooperative.

5. Conscientiousness

e. You likely tend to experience negative emotions, such as anger, anxiety, or depression frequently. You may be more emotionally reactive and vulnerable to stress than most others. People are more likely to interpret ordinary situations as threatening, and minor frustrations as hopelessly difficult. Their negative emotional reactions tend to persist for unusually long periods of time, which means they are often in a bad mood. These problems in emotional regulation can diminish a person's ability to think clearly, make decisions, and cope effectively with stress.

Теоретическая часть:

Let's be honest, there are times when you want to know how to make friends. Here are some steps and tips to help you overcome these obstacles.

Spend more time around people. Don't be mean; you do not want to lose friends. If you want to make friends, you first need to put yourself out there somehow in order to meet people. If you're still in school, sit somewhere with other people. It doesn't have to be the «popular» table, or a crowded one, but one with at least two other people. The popular kids won't matter when you're older, but a true friend will be there for you forever. Remember, friends seldom come knocking on your door while you sit at home playing computer games. Populars aren't always going to be mean to you. They just need to know you a little better.

Join an organization or club with people who have common interests. You don't necessarily need to have a lot of common interests with people in order to make friends with them. In fact, some of the most rewarding friendships are between two people who don't have much in common at all, but if you like a specific topic, try searching for just a location. It's a great way to meet new local people! Social networking sites such as Facebook, Twitter and Google+ are great way to meet new people and learn more about the people you meet. When you are chatting just say are you on Facebook? or what is your name on Twitter? A church, Masjid (mosque) or other house of worship is a great place to start since you have at least a religious faith in common. Just remember to be safe on the internet, you don't know who is actually on the other end most of the time.

Join a sports team. A common misconception about this is that you have to be really good at playing a particular sport in order to make friends with others on the team, but not all teams are so competitive. As long as you enjoy the sport and support your teammates, joining a local team with a laid-back attitude could be a great way to make new friends. But a sports team isn't the only way. If you play instruments or sing, try joining a band or choir.

Talk to people. You can join a club, go to school, or go to church but you still won't make friends if you don't actually talk to people. By the same token, you don't have to be involved with an organization to be social, and any time you talk to someone, you have a chance at making a lasting friend. You can talk to anybody: the clerk at the video store, the person sitting next to you on the bus, or the person in front of you in the lunch line. Don't be too picky. Most conversations will be a dead-end of sorts, when you may never talk to that person again, or you just remain acquaintances – but once in a while you'll actually make a friend.

Make eye contact and smile. If you have an unfriendly countenance, people are less likely to be receptive to your friendship. Try not squinting (get some glasses), looking bored, frowning or appearing blankly deadpan, folding your arms (this practically screams «don't talk to me») or hanging out in a corner; such habits may make you look troubled or disinterested.

Start a conversation. There are many ways to do this; a comment about your immediate environment (The weather is a classic: «At least it's not raining like last week!»), a request for help («Can you help me carry a few boxes, if you have a minute?» or «Can you help me decide which one of these is a better gift for my mom?») or a compliment («That's a nice car.» or «I love your shoes.»). Follow up immediately with a related question: Do you like this warm weather? What kinds of gifts do you normally buy for your mom? Where did you get shoes like that?

Introduce yourself at the end of the conversation. It can be as simple as saying» Oh, by the way, my name is...». Once you introduce yourself, the other person will typically do the same. Remember his or her name! If you show that you remembered things from your past conversation(s) with the person, not only will you look intelligent but he or she will see that you were paying attention and are willing to be a true friend.

Личные местоимения в именительном падеже употребляются в функции подлежащего.

В английском языке имена существительные имеют только два падежа: притяжательный падеж, в котором существительные принимают особое окончание, и общий падеж, в котором существительные не имеют никаких окончаний, подобно тому, как нет окончаний у существительных в именительном падеже в русском языке:

Pete (Пит, Петр)

В английском языке существительные в общем падеже могут употребляться в функциях подлежащего и прямого дополнения (всегда без предлога), косвенного и предложного дополнений, обстоятельства (как правило с предлогом), определения (как с предлогом, так и без него).

Лицо	Число
	Единственное	Множественное
1-е	I	we мы
2-е	you (ты) вы	you вы
3-е	he он	they они
	she она it он, она, оно (о вещах)

Личные местоимения 3-го лица ед. числа в английском языке различаются по роду:

he — местоимение мужского рода — заменяет, как правило, существительное, обозначающее существо мужского пола;

she — местоимение женского рода — заменяет, как правило, существительное, обозначающее существо женского пола;

it — местоимение среднего рода — заменяет существительное, обозначающее неодушевленный предмет, животное, если его пол не имеет значения для говорящего, а также существительное baby (маленький ребенок, дитя).

Местоимение they рода не имеет и заменяет как одушевленные, так и неодушевленные существительные во мн. числе.

FRIENDSHIP AND MY BEST FRIEND

According to the dictionary friendship is a feeling and behaviour that exist between people, but what these feelings are and what this behaviour is everyone should decide for himself. I consider that friendship is a gift that's why I highly appreciate it. I think it is hard to find a close friend because people are unique creatures of nature, all of them have their own habits, opinions and judgments which differ from others.

It makes sense to say that friendship can be compared to a tree. Its seed should find good soil and under favourable conditions it will grow into a tree. As the years go by the tree stands firmer and firmer on the ground and if it is strong enough it will survive all the storms and winds, but to help it we should take care of it and love it.

In my opinion lucky are the people who have real friends. As for me I'm happy to have lots of friends, some of them are close, some are less, but all of them make my life interesting and enjoyable and I can't imagine my life without them, because friendship means very much for me. Being friends means making allowances for the other person's faults, being tolerant to each other moods. The most important thing about friends for me is being able to share secrets, to tell each other your problems and share your worries, to help each other out.

An ideal friend should possess such qualities as honesty, sincerity, faith, tolerance and respect in attitude to you. A friend is a person who can help you in no time, lend you a hand, whom you can wake up in the middle of the night just to say you feel worried or who is eager to do everything for you waiting nothing in return, who supports you in all your beginnings and who will never betray you.

It doesn't matter your best friend is a girl or a boy. I think that her or his soul, character and attitude to you are considerably more important. Some people think that a boy-friend can never spread false stories about you or tell your secrets to the entire world, but to my mind it depends on his moral qualities. I knew one boy who began to spread stories about me, saying I was dishonest, unreliable when we broke our relations, but I still actually believe in friendship between fellows and girls, that's why I have equal amount of boys and girls among my close friends.

But in my opinion it isn't an easy thing to be a true friend and before somebody can name you his best friend you should prove your friendship. To my mind everyone can have only one or two true friends, because a friend to all is a friend to none. You are interested in your friend with all his positive and negative traits of personality and your friend in his turn can understand and forgive you everything. You shouldn't tell a lie to your friend, there mustn't be hypocrisy in your speech and even in thoughts. Before telling your friend something, before doing anything you should think a lot and guess what kind influence it will render on him and on his life.

I'm sure you will agree that nowadays there are various ways of acquaintance. Some people make friends when they are in guests or on weddings, others prefer to find friends with the help of newspapers or the Internet. Somebody can get acquainted with his future friend when he even doesn't expect it, for example, when he simply walks in a park or goes anywhere by public transport.

What about me I have known my best friend Nelly almost all my life, but I can never forget our first meeting. It was in summer when our families decided to rest in the south together.

When we drove up to their house my attention was attracted by a little tidy girl in a rose dress, but I can't say that my first impressions were the same as my opinion about her now, because meeting people for the first time we always make a judgment based on their appearance though the proverb tells us not to make such a mistake. At first she seemed to me so correct, obedient and shy that I didn't like her, but when we began to communicate closer I understood I was mistaken. I think it makes sense to say that when we returned home we were loyal friends.

Today she has changed a lot but we are still best friends and now I think Nell is a very charming and pretty seventeen-year-old girl. She isn't tall and I can't even say that she is of average height but she is always smart and elegant. She is the owner of a blunt nose, large expressive green eyes and radiant smile that immediately makes people smile in return. Her blond hair and sort voice make her similar to a little beautiful princess from a fairy-tale.

My friend likes casual clothes. Nell hates skirts and formal blouses, but adores tight-fitting trousers and casual T-shirts. She prefers low-heeled shoes to high-heeled, because they are more comfortable to her mind.

I believe that Nelly is a very amazing girl, because she differs from other people. When she was about twelve she became a real tomboy, she communicated only with boys except me, she liked to play rough and boys' games and she even decided to go to the army when she would come of age. All her friends and relatives tried to dissuade her and at least she agreed, but frankly speaking, I can't understand her desire even now, though in general we are very alike.

It's true that Nelly is a very enthusiastic and active person, you can hardly find her sitting at one place without doing anything but in spite of it she constantly has no free time. I should say I can never be bored; my friend keeps company for me, because she is so cheerful and joyous. She is responsible and original, I think. She can never refuse if I need support or a piece of advice, she is always eager to help me and to calm me with the help of a tender word.

To my mind Nell is an intelligent, skillful and diligent girl, that's why her success in study is brilliant. I'd like to add that she is a great daydreamer, because she has always got her head in the clouds and she is always dreaming about something.

But like other people she isn't an ideal. Sometimes she is too lazy and stubborn and I dislike it a bit. She is rather impatient, because she can't wait for long. But these features of her character don't matter much for me; I try not to pay attention to them because in general she is a wonderful person, whom I worship a lot.

At these rare times when we see each other we like to attend cinema or central park, but most of all we like to talk. When we meet our mouths are never close because we can speak for hours, I can discuss with my best friend such problems that I can't discuss with my parents. We speak about fellows and our relations with them, we discuss our problems with parents and share our thoughts and dreams. It doesn't mean that I can't say about all these things to my mother, but I know that nobody can understand me better than Nell.

Nelly often has troubles and problems with her parents and it is another thing that worries me. I know her parents very well and to my mind they are wonderful people, but sometimes my friend can be rude to them and as a result they quarrel, when she tells me about such quarrels I can't take her side because I don't approve her behaviour, that's why I prefer to keep silence in such situations.

To my mind thoughts, opinions and habits of your friend can influence you a lot, but they should not destroy your own personality, they shouldn't influence you if you don't want it. I'm happy that both of us understand it. And it goes without saying that I like Nelly with all her positive and negative features of character and admire her a lot.

Dear Victor,

I'm writing this e-mail message to you from Moscow. You remember I told you I wanted to become an economist. Now I'm a University student! In July I took entrance exams to Moscow State University. The exams were rather difficult and there were a lot of applicants but I passed all the exams well enough. I was admitted to the university as a first-year student. I still don't believe it.

Our University was founded as the first institute to train personnel for work in the economy of the country. Here there are many students from other countries. After graduating from the University they go back to work in their countries.

The University is headed by the Rector. There are also several pro-rectors and Heads of chairs. The faculties are headed by Deans. The University has many faculties. Among them there are the Faculty of International Economic Relations, the Faculty of Business and Management, and the Faculty of Economy at enterprises. I am a student of the Faculty of International Economic Relations. I'm going to study economics, finance and commerce.

The University has many faculties. Among them there are the Faculty of International Economic Relations, the Faculty of Business and Management, and the Faculty of Economy at enterprises.

I am a student of the Faculty of International Economic Relations. I'm going to study economics, finance and commerce. There are twenty five students in my group. Some students live in Moscow and others come from all over the world. Many students in my class come from Moscow. One boy is from Rostov-on-Don. There is a girl from the Ukraine and a boy from India. I have already got acquainted with many of my fellow students.

Our classes begin at 8:20 o'clock in the morning. After two classes there is a forty five minutes break for lunch. I usually have lunch at the University canteen, but some of my fellow-students go to one of the several buffets.

After classes I often go to the library or to the multimedia laboratory. The University library has a big collection of books on different subjects. There are also two large reading rooms with a number of PCs. The language laboratory is situated on the second floor. It offers teaching programs for students learning English, French, and German. Each computer there has an access to the World Web.

If you answer me I'm going to mail you another message tomorrow. Mail me a letter as soon as possible. I'm looking forward to it.

Yours, Nick

Мы будем жить на даче (country-house), где мы жили в прошлом году. Я не люблю жить в местах, которые я совсем не знаю. А это место очень хорошее. Оно нам всем очень понравилось. Там есть лес и река. Мы будем купаться (плавать) и загорать по два или три часа в день. Моя сестра провела в этом районе (месте) прошлое лето со своим сыном. Ты знаешь, что у него плохое здоровье. Сейчас он чувствует себя совсем хорошо. Ты не собираешься приехать к нам? Приезжай в начале июля со своей семьей, мы хорошо проведем время вместе.

When you answer the phone, it is ok to answer just «Hello». After your caller introduces himself, you would say one of the following:

- "Hi John, this is Robert. How are you?"
- "Speaking." or "Robert Wilson speaking."
- "I'm sorry, but Robert is not able to come to the phone right now. He's not home. May I take a message?"

It is not polite to call someone before 9 am or after 10 pm, unless it is an emergency. The only exception would be if he or she told you it is ok to call earlier or later.

Понятие о причастии I

1. Как было указано выше, глагол в английском языке имеет четыре основные формы. Четвертой формой является причастие I. Это неизменяемая неличная форма глагола, не имеющая форм абсолютного времени, падежа, числа и рода.

Причастие I образуется от основы инфинитива при помощи окончания -ing:

to read читать reading читающий

to speak говорить speaking говорящий

2. При прибавлении окончания -ing происходят следующие орфографические изменения:

1) конечная „немая“ буква -e после согласной отбрасывается:

to take брать taking берущий (конечная буква e — немая)

to see видеть seeing видящий (конечная буква e — читаемая, так как входит в буквосочетание) to be быть being (конечная буква e — читаемая, так как является единственной гласной в слове).

2) Для сохранения краткого чтения корневой гласной конечная согласная перед окончанием -ing удваивается:

swim плавать swimming плавающий

3) Сочетание букв -ie в корне стягивается в букву -y: to lie лежать lying лежащий

П р и м е ч а н и е. Конечная буква -у при прибавлении окончания -ing всегда сохраняется, например: to study studying to say saying изучать изучающий сказать говорящий

3. Причастие I соответствует русскому причастию действительного залога настоящего времени с суффиксами -ущ (-ющ) изучающий, и -ащ (-ящ) говорящий.

4. Причастие I может употребляться в предложении в функции определения и без пояснительных слов обычно стоит перед определяемым существительным:

a running boy бегущий мальчик
a smiling girl улыбающаяся девочка

Времена группы Continuous

Термин Continuous образован от глагола to continue продолжать.

1. В отличие от времен группы Indefinite, употребляющихся для констатации факта совершения обычного или повторяющегося действия безотносительно к другому действию или моменту, времена группы Continuous (настоящее, прошедшее и будущее) обозначают действие, соотнесенное с данным моментом, действие в процессе его развития, т.е. совершающееся, совершавшееся или которое будет совершаться в определенный момент в настоящем (т.е. в момент речи), прошедшем или будущем.

Протекание действия именно в данный момент выражается в русском языке только лексически, т.е. наличием в предложении обстоятельств времени типа в шесть часов утра, в семь часов вечера, в тот момент и т.д. Поэтому при переводе глаголов с русского языка всегда следует обращать внимание на их сочетаемость с теми или иными обстоятельствами времени, т.е. различать, выражают ли эти глаголы действие, обычно происходящее, повторяющееся или действие в развитии, в процессе, происходящее в данный момент.

2. Форма настоящего времени группы Continuous (The Present Continuous Tense Form). В отличие от времен группы Indefinite, времена группы Continuous являются сложными по форме, так как состоят из двух частей, а именно: изменяемой части — вспомогательного глагола to be, который обозначает лицо, число и время, и неизменяемой части — причастия I смыслового глагола (так называемой -ing формы). Это можно представить в виде следующей формулы:

to be (изменяемая часть)	+	-ing (Participle I) (неизменяемая часть)
------------------------------------	---	--

I am reading a book now. Сейчас читаю книгу.

Who is standing at the door? Кто стоит у двери?

3. Вопросительная форма образуется путем постановки вспомогательного глагола to be в соответствующем лице, числе и времени перед подлежащим:

Am I reading a book now? Читаю ли я книгу сейчас?

4. Отрицательная форма образуется при помощи отрицательной частицы not, которая ставится после первого вспомогательного глагола:

I am not reading now. Сейчас я не читаю.

5. Настоящее время группы Continuous употребляется для выражения длительного действия, совершающегося в момент речи:

What are you doing? — I am writing a letter. Что ты делаешь? — Я пишу письмо.

П р и м е ч а н и е. Наличие слов, обозначающих момент речи, таких как now сейчас, at this moment в настоящий момент не обязательно, поскольку сама форма времени показывает, что действие совершается в настоящий момент. В русском языке совпадение действия с моментом речи либо ясно из контекста, либо указывается словами сейчас, теперь, в настоящий момент и т.д.

6. Глаголы, выражающие чувства, восприятия и умственную деятельность также некоторые другие глаголы во временах группы Continuous не употребляются. К таким глаголам относятся: to want хотеть, to like нравиться, to love любить, to wish желать, to see видеть, to hear слышать, to feel чувствовать, to notice замечать, to know знать, to understand понимать, to remember помнить, to recognize узнавать, to forget забывать, to seem казаться, to be быть и др.

Я понимаю, о чем он сейчас говорит.

I understand what he is speaking about.

Сейчас я не вижу вас. Now I don't see you.

7. Настоящее время группы Continuous употребляется также для выражения действия, которое совершится в ближайшем будущем (сравните с аналогичным употреблением настоящего времени в русском языке). В этом случае в английском предложении, как и в русском, обычно имеется обстоятельство времени, указывающее на будущее время:

They are going to the cinema at five o'clock. В пять часов они идут (=пойдут) в кино.

TELEPHONING

One cannot imagine life without using media means and telephone is one of the most accessible of them. Telephone is the quickest way of communication and is most frequently used under pressure of time. It is used, as a rule, to get or pass on information. We use telephone in public and private conversations. It often replaces correspondence, requiring great efforts and time. The telephone may be one of the most powerful, efficient and cost-effective business tools you have at your disposal. If things start out badly on the phone, they may never progress beyond the first call.

Most of the important characteristics of telephone conversation are of course exactly the same as those of conversation which takes place face to face. There are, however, a number of differences: people cannot see each other and so place a great amount of reliance on the way you speak. You must pronounce your words very clearly or your listeners will misunderstand you. Telephone manners and etiquette are critical components of a professional image. Speaking a foreign language over the phone impose certain skills in understanding and keeping up the conversations, such skills are to be worked out and developed through the whole period of foreign language learning. The telephone is one of the most important business instruments used in an office, so it is essential that it is used skillfully. A pleasing voice, low, well-controlled and firm, is a decided asset and should be developed.

Maintaining a business-like manner is important in corporate life. The voicemail message you leave, on someone's machine, is equivalent to a handshake in today's business world. Think about it. Would you like it, if you call your company's accounts department, and the voicemail message went "We are closed, call tomorrow"? Or if a colleague, John Smith left you an urgent message, but did not give his extension number or department? There is etiquette for voicemail, and it is important to know the difference between casual and corporate voicemail rules.

6. Переведите текст, отправьте свое голосовое сообщение и запишите сообщение на автоответчик на время Вашего отсутствия (воспользуйтесь диктофоном телефона):

HOW TO LEAVE A PROFESSIONAL VOICEMAIL MESSAGE

When recording or leaving a voicemail on someone's machine:

- After the message plays, pause for 1-2 seconds before speaking.
- State your name, organization or company's name, your specific corporate department, if any, and telephone number. Do so clearly and slowly.
- State the date and time of your call.
- In a few words, describe your reason for calling. Keep your recording brief and to the point. Do not ramble.
- If necessary, leave the best time for the person to call you back, or mention that you will be available at any time.
- At the end of the message, repeat your name and phone number slowly.

Example:

"Hello, this is Ellen Myers, from Wireless Ltd, Accounts department. My phone number is 810-203-2232. This call is with reference to your leave application for the 5th of April, 2011. There are a few minor details to be discussed. Please call me back on receiving this message, 810-203-2232. Have a nice day".

If you are calling someone for the first time or it's a really important call, write down what you are going to say. Do not go "umm" and "ahh.." on the message. Be specific and brief in stating your purpose. When calling someone you have never met or don't know, mention a mutual acquaintance or colleague, if any, to bridge the gap. Cover all grounds, leave alternate or home phone and even email addresses, so you don't miss a reply to your message. Avoid slang, personal references and casual language. Don't be stiff and detached sounding, be pleasant, with a clear tone. Do not exhale into the phone, as it can be heard on the recording.

HOW TO RECORD A PROFESSIONAL OUTGOING VOICEMAIL MESSAGE

Here you can find some business voicemail greeting etiquette rules, to record the perfect professional voicemail message for your inbox:

1. State your name, department, organization and telephone number.

"Hi, this is Barney Mosby with the HR department of Bringle Electronics, at 820-233-1234".

2. State that you are not available or at your desk, and other relevant information.

"I'm currently not at my desk".

"I'm sorry I could not receive your call at this time".

"I'm not in the office today, December 20th, 2002. I will be returning on January 10th, 2003".

"From the 1st of April to the 3rd of May, I will be unable to answer your call on this number".

3. Ask people to leave an appropriate message with the necessary information.

"Please leave your name, telephone number and details of what I can do for you".

4. Provide complete and brief contact information. You can leave the name and phone number of a colleague or secretary, who can assist the caller, in your absence.

"If you require assistance immediately, please contact (Name) at (Telephone Number)".

"I'll call you as soon as I return".

5. Let them know when you can return the call. Email addresses can be left as an alternate contact source.

"I will not be able to return your call for another hour".

"You can email me at roz@abc.com".

Familiarize yourself with your voicemail system's commands and features. Options like attendant and call forward, make it easier for your callers to record messages and keeps you up-to-date. Keep your messages brief, no one likes listening to long stories over the phone. Empty your inbox from time to time. Be prompt in replying to messages, try to do so on the same day that the person called. These small courtesies just add to your good impression. With the proper business voicemail etiquette, you are a complete professional, in every way.

Russian educational system is one of the most developed and advanced educational systems in the world. Higher education is under the jurisdiction of the Ministry of Education of the Russian Federation, which is responsible for the accreditation and licensing of higher education establishments. It also is responsible for developing and maintaining State Educational Standards. Only accredited higher education establishments have the right to issue state diplomas and degrees. Russian diplomas and degrees are covered by international agreements on mutual recognition and validation of educational documents.

The government of Russia has been investing heavily since 2011, to upgrade the infrastructure and facilities of its varsities and has been working hard to make its education system more compatible with the rest of the nations in the continent. An increasing number of universities in Russia are now using English as a medium of instruction, which has made the country a popular destination for higher education among students.

The varsities in Russia offer courses in medicine, engineering, business management, humanities as well as economics. These degrees are recognized and accepted globally. If you have decided to pursue your higher education in Russia, you are most likely to achieve satisfaction with the knowledge acquired and experienced gained here.

- The education system in Russia is based on the principle that educational institutions should provide individual attention to students. This approach helps the students to achieve proficiency in any subject that they choose to study.
- The tuition fees in most institutions are quite low and so is the cost of living; which is why many students decide in favour of studying abroad in Russia.
- Education here is training-oriented, so that students (local or foreign), get good placements once they finish their studies.
- The job opportunities are many for students, once they complete their courses and get a degree.

Entry Requirements for Russian Universities

Russia's top universities have very competitive entry requirements, and special entry exams are held each year. Applicants for advanced degrees (M.A./ M.Sc., Ph.D., D.Sc.) should have their prior degree in the same or a very similar field.

Distance education is also offered by many Russian universities and provides courses for the public and for specific professional needs. However, such systems are usually less developed than in the US and other Western European countries.

The academic year starts from Sept 1 and ends in Mid - June everywhere, with long summer vacations from July 1st to Aug 31.

There are the following types of higher education establishments in the Russian Federation:

- 1) University is a higher education institution with activities aimed at developing education, science and culture by performing fundamental scientific research and training at the levels of higher, post-higher and further education within a wide range of Natural Sciences, Humanities and other directions of science, technology and culture.
- 2) Academy is a higher education institution aimed at developing education, science and culture by performing fundamental scientific research and training at all the levels of higher, post-higher and further education, mainly in one specific area of science, technology and culture.
- 3) Institute is an independent higher education institution or a part (structural unit) of the University, and Academy that applies vocational educational curricula in specific areas of science, technology, culture and is involved in scientific research.

Выражение отношений родительного падежа при помощи предлога of Некоторые отношения между словами в предложении выражаются в английском языке посредством предлогов. Так, отношение родительного падежа между двумя существительными, когда второе существительное является определением к первому, выражается предлогом of.

Предлог of может употребляться с любым существительным, обозначающим одушевленный или неодушевленный предмет:

the work of that engineer работатогоинженера
the walls of this large room стеныэтойбольшойкомнаты
the centre of the city центргорода

Как видно из примеров, предлог of ставится перед существительным со всеми его определениями, и всё словосочетание является определением к другому существительному.

Вопросы и задания:

1. Проанализируйте систему высшего образования в России.

2. Переведите текст и составьте свои собственные предложения с выражениями, выделенными курсивом:

There is no doubt in my mind that it is very important for young people to have a high standard of education, if they are going to do well in the future and get a good job. Firstly, the education they get should help them to gain knowledge, and develop their skills and talents as well. This will help them to get the qualifications that are appropriate for the kind of work they want to do. That is why it is important that the standard of teaching in schools is high and a wide range of subjects are taught. I don't think it is necessary to go to university to get a good job because it depends on the kind of work you want to do. Obviously, though, anyone who wants to have a career as a doctor or lawyer for example, will need to get a degree. Another thing I'd like to point out is that having a degree can help you improve your prospects and get a better paid job because it shows that you have a high level of education. But going to university isn't the only way to make sure of getting a decent job.

Another way is to go for vocational training at a college. Here, you can learn about a job if you want to work as something like an electrician or a computer engineer. Training schemes are a very good way of getting a qualification that employers can trust. I also think that practical experience in the job you want to do can be very helpful too. So, apart from taking courses to train for a job, it's a great idea to get as much hands-on experience as you can.

I believe that my education is very important for my future career as I would like to work as a scientist. Of course, being well-educated is only the beginning because it's up to me to make sure that I make the most of the career opportunities available to me.

English Exam Preparation

Our team of Heritage English teachers are experienced and trained in teaching the specific skills required to pass all English language exams. These intensive courses are designed for students who need preparation and revision to pass internationally recognized examinations. Our past students have found that a short intensive exam preparation course can make a big difference to their confidence and, most importantly, to their exam results.

Most students on such courses will have some self-study periods as well as formal tuition. However, we can arrange for students to take part in extra afternoon activities of their choice.

Exam preparation courses include:

- IELTS (International English Language Testing System)
- TOEFL (Test of English as a Foreign Language)
- TOEIC (Test of English for International Communication)
- International Baccalaureate – Guidance in English Module
- Cambridge First Certificate in English (FCE)
- Cambridge Certificate of Advanced English (CAE)
- Cambridge Certificate of Proficiency in English (CPE)

Do you remember that nasty feeling of sweaty palms? The sudden inability to talk your mouth is so dry? I'm talking about waiting at the door of an exam room, convinced that you know nothing and that there's no way you will get through this experience alive. We've all been there at some point of our lives.

Somehow though we get through it. We survive to see another day. But what has always baffled me is how people react so differently when faced with the prospect of taking an exam. I don't know about you but I've always been insanely jealous of those people who party all year round, then the night before the exam flick through my course book, (theirs is empty because they didn't go to any lectures), and then somehow manage to sail through the exam with flying colours. In the meantime I'm there, present and correct at most of my lectures, panicking for weeks before my finals.

As you turn your paper over, your mind inevitably goes blank for at least the first ten minutes and you start thinking back to the days when you had a life, in the pre-revision era. Suddenly though, fear takes over. You jab your forehead incessantly with a pen in the hope that this will encourage some sort of intelligent thought to flow from your brain to the paper via your pen. And miracles of miracles, it does. For the next three hours you write constantly, not even pausing for breath because you're on fire. Nothing can stop you now. And three hours later you're mentally exhausted and your arm wants to drop off. But you've got through it, or at least you think you have...

The post-exam ritual involves everyone saying; 'Ok lets talk about anything other than the exam because that was absolutely awful.', and then you all proceed to talk about nothing else but the exam for the next hour. Where you thought you'd done well, now after having listened to what everyone else put, well there's just no way you could have passed. I wouldn't even pass myself if I were marking it; the answers I put were so irrelevant. Quality not quantity is what we've always been told and I forgot that golden rule. I have an aching arm for nothing.

Now comes the wait. Why can't examining boards devise a wonderful marking system that can put you out of your misery within the next couple of days. Two months is an obscene amount of time if you ask me. Eventually the envelope arrives. A hot tip: when asked for your address you should always give your parents' address to avoid having to rush to the door for a week around the results day and then actually having to open the dreaded envelope once it eventually arrives two days late, a sadistic delay intended so that you sweat it out some more. In any case your mum is scared enough as it is and is only too happy to pass on the good news when it arrives on her doorstep. Lo and behold the day when I fail an exam! Anyway, the upshot of all the stress and anxiety is that the hard work has paid off and even though you don't quite get the A++ that your jammy friend got, you're ecstatic with your well-earned B+.

Though one thing I haven't quite worked out yet is what the attraction of exams is. There must be something addictive about the stress related to them. I spent last summer doing a teaching course followed by a horribly stress-inducing exam in December. Nobody forced me to do it. I actually volunteered and handed over a scary amount of money for the privilege. Neither have I learnt from my school exam days as I still went through the same old emotions, and the same old rituals and I'm very pleased to say it worked. Although I'm still convinced that it's not so much what I wrote in my exam that did it but how I wrote it.

1. Утвердительная форма настоящего времени группы Indefinite для всех лиц, кроме 3-го лица ед. числа, совпадает с формой инфинитива без частицы to:

I read	я читаю	we read	мы читаем
you read	вы читаете	you read	вы читаете
		they read	они читают

2. Вопросительная форма образуется при помощи вспомогательного глагола to do в настоящем времени и смыслового глагола в форме инфинитива без частицы to, причем вспомогательный глагол ставится перед подлежащим:

		do they read?	читают ли они?

3. Отрицательная форма образуется при помощи вспомогательного глагола to do в настоящем времени, частицы not, которая ставится после этого вспомогательного глагола, и смыслового глагола в форме инфинитива без частицы to:

I do not read	я не читаю	we do not read	мы не читаем
you do not read	вы не читаете	you do not read	вы не читаете

6. С настоящим временем группы Indefinite часто употребляются наречия неопределенного времени, а также словосочетания everyday каждый день, every morning каждое утро, every evening каждый вечер, поскольку они по своему лексическому значению также выражают повторность действия. Словосочетания everyday, every morning, every evening могут стоять как в начале, так и в конце повествовательного утвердительного предложения, но всегда стоят в конце отрицательного повествовательного, а также вопросительного предложений:

Every day we read newspapers. Каждый день мы читаем газеты.

Student life at the UK is not entirely the same as it is in Russia, though _1_. The major difference is in the number of hours a student spends in the classroom or lecture. In the UK an art student spends anything from 8 to 20 hours a week in formal lessons, lectures, seminars or tutorials.

The reason for this difference is in a difference in teaching methods. In Britain what a student is taught in the classroom or lecture _2_. The bulk of the work _3_, in the library or at home. He or she is given lists and guide lines of course but much more emphasis is put on research and finding things out for oneself.

Most of the work is in the form of essays the title of which are questions or statements _4_. A student has to set out a reasoned argument backed up by knowledge and facts. The end result of all this is that students in the UK have a great deal more free time, or rather _5_.

2. Расставьте правильный порядок реплик диалога:

1. Ok. It was nice talking to you.

2. I doubt that many students will be for it because in this case we'll have five or six classes a day. We'll have much more homework to do and will be completely exhausted by the weekend. Anyway, not all students are eager to study as much as you do.

3. Why? A new uniform may look so stylish.

4. I'm not sure about it because classes will be over too late.

5. Have you heard that our authorities are planning to introduce some changes? What do you think of it?

6. But you don't have to think about what to put on. Besides, lots of students are often teased because they don't wear expensive designer clothes. So those students whose parents can't afford stylish clothes will feel more comfortable.

7. You're right. Sorry but I've got to go now. I'll call you later.

8. Yes, but we can do part of our homework there and have more free time after classes.

9. Well, I like changes but I don't think that a new uniform is the best decision.

10. I don't think that it's a good idea because it may be too noisy during the break and you can easily get distracted. Such a long break is a waste of time. I'd rather have one day off to study on my own.

11. I can't stand wearing the same clothes all the time. When we wear a uniform, we lose our individuality.

12. Perhaps, you are right. What about an hour lunch break? It seems like a good idea because we could have time to go for a walk or just to relax talking with friends. And those who live close will be able to have lunch at home.

3. Переведите недостающие части предложений в тексте:

I am going to (поговорить) about the value of homework. Although (никто) likes having homework to do, it is (важная часть обучения). It gives students an (возможность) to look at what they have been taught in class and practice or make sure they understand it in their own time. Sometimes it gives students an opportunity to consider any questions they might have about the topic.

However, students should (иметь время для других дел) after school too and not only homework. This is important because after studying (весь день в институте), students need to rest their brains. (Уровень концентрации падает) after long periods of study and education experts recommend regular breaks and changes of activity.

When students move on to university they will need to read and study their chosen subject on their own. Homework in the earlier years of education prepares them for this. It develops the ability to organise their studies and discipline themselves. Many teachers complain about the (количество времени) they spend (делая домашнюю работу). However by looking at what students can do (самостоятельно), a teacher can see where students are having (трудности) and help them in these areas. It is a way of assessing students' progress and it contributes to their lesson planning because they know what areas to focus on in the lesson to help the students learn.

Success in exams is determined by many intrinsic factors. Because motivation represents an essential element of success, it should be born in mind that no preparation might yield positive results if you are demotivated. So the first thing to do is to try to ask yourself what motivates you to pass the exam. Do you seek a financially rewarding job? Do you want to attend a university course? Or is it just a need to realize a dream? Whatever motivates you is the crucial drive for your success! In addition to motivation, you must have a realistic strategy towards success. This involves steps before and during the exam.

Before the exam:

- You need to plan and organize in an orderly way.
- You need to set preparation timetables and set measurable, attainable and realistic goals.
- Each subject should be given its due importance.
- You must use mind maps, short notes summaries to revise lessons.
- Previous exams can be of great help to students by reading them and familiarizing themselves with format, marking scheme, language, terminology, types of questions...
- You must also set a time for sleep and relaxation.

During the exam:

- While sitting for the exam, you should read the instructions carefully and check all the pages.
- Students should consider which questions they will answer first and which they should leave for later. For example, it might be helpful to start planning the most difficult questions, but answer the easier questions first.
- It is also preferable to plan timing according to the number of questions and marks for each.
- Managing stress is an important factor. One tip that might work for students is taking deep breaths now and then.

They serve hot and cold snacks, proper meals, cakes, buns, chocolates, sandwiches, coffee, tea and cold soft drinks. The prices tend to be quite a bit lower than in ordinary cafes. Apart from the refectories there are also tea or coffee bars in most faculty buildings. 6. Перескажите:

I would like to compare my university with other universities of our city. It is considered to be the best university of our city and one of the best universities of our country. I realized that I should study there and my parents wanted me to enter it. Besides, my sister is the most vivid example what can give to a person. Today she has interesting well-paid job, which is connected with her education. So, I didn't doubt what university to choose and where to study.

Now I'm a first-year student. I passed entrance exams and I study here. The first examination session, of course, was difficult. So, everything is known in the comparison. Frankly speaking, I simply didn't know how to pass the exam, what to do and that's why it was difficult. More than that now I realized that it is easier to enter the university than to study here, to try not to be expelled.

Speaking of my faculty -I can say that it is one of the most difficult faculties of our university. If you missed some classes it is not so simple to catch up with the program later, because practical lessons give much to a person and nobody is going to explain you new information again. I also think that every student must remember that in the university everybody treats like an adult and you should prove it and behave like an adult.

Concerning my lecturers-I find them great. Everyone has a good command of teaching. Each of them is different and we treat him/her differently. I think that it is the main thing in the university- we learn how to get on well with different people. Concerning my group I should say that everyone in my group is personality and that's why it is very interesting to study in such group. You can get with people closer and you try to be on good terms with everyone. To tell the truth I get on well with everyone, but I have some people I spend more time with. We mix up in cinemas, cafés and clubs. In general I should say that the university changed me and to be exact my intercourse completely. I get acquainted with many interesting people. As for me- it is very important because by nature I'm sociable and to mix up with people means to live for me.

Теоретическая часть:

Looking for a place can be exciting but it's also likely to be a stressful experience. Places to rent may be limited therefore it is important that you ask at your English school for advice on where to start searching.

The most important thing about renting an apartment is finding a place within your budget. If places are too expensive you should consider getting a roommate to help with the rent.

When you meet the landlord, try to make a good impression, be the sort of tenant he or she would be comfortable renting to. Does the landlord seem like a good person? Remember you will have to trust your landlord will help you if you have problems in your apartment.

Property owners generally ask for a deposit when you move in. This money should be returned when you eventually move out as long as you leave the apartment in good condition. A non-refundable deposit means the money will not be returned to you.

A furnished apartment has all the furniture and appliances you need to move straight in. Move into a unfurnished place and you will have to buy your own bed, sofa, table and chairs! Before moving in you will sign a contract with the landlord called a lease. Read the lease carefully before you sign it. Make sure that all terms and conditions are exactly what you were told.

Make sure you know what is included. Some rental properties include utilities and internet as part of the monthly rental cost, while other properties do not. If you are unsure about anything, ask for clarification or show a staff member at your school and then make sure it is written in your lease. Also include a list of any pre-existing damage the property has. Once you have decided to move in, check the property for any issues and note them down with your landlord for inclusion in the lease.

Landlord A person who owns property and rents it to another.

Lease A written contract specifying the terms for the use of an asset and the legal responsibilities of both parties to the agreement, such as the property owner and tenant.

Rent A periodic payment for a place to live.

Tenant A person who pays rent; the legal name for a renter.

Security Deposit Represents the money a landlord can use for cleaning fees or repairs to the apartment when you move out.

Utilities: Gas, electricity and water. Some landlords will include water in the rent.

Вопросы, относящиеся к подлежащему или его определению, начинаются с вопросительных местоимений who? кто?; what? что?, какой?; whose? чей?, which? который? и др. и имеют прямой порядок слов, т.е. порядок слов повествовательного предложения, поскольку подлежащим в них или определением к подлежащему являются сами вопросительные слова. Вопросительные слова who? кто? what? что? и which? который? согласуются обычно с глаголом-сказуемым в 3-м лице ед. числа:

Who reads English well? Кто хорошо читает по-английски?

What lastst two hours? Что продолжается два часа?

Whose son knows English? Чей сын знает английский язык?

Whose sisters live here? Чьи сестры живут здесь?

П р и м е ч а н и е. Местоимение which употребляется, когда речь идет о выборе из ограниченного числа лиц или предметов. Очень часто за местоимением which следует существительное или местоимение с предлогом of и из:

Which of them speaks French? Кто из них говорит по-французски?

На вопросы к подлежащему или к его определению обычно даются краткие ответы, которые состоят из подлежащего и соответствующего вспомогательного глагола в требуемом лице, числе и времени.

Practically all students live away from home. During the first year most live in students' hostels. The halls are not bad as a rule. Sometimes students may share a room or have a room to themselves. Some halls are self-catering and have a kitchen on each floor. In others food is provided and included in a year bill. There are cleaners who come in to clean the room and empty the bins. There is 1 (usual) a laundry where there are automatic 2 (wash) machines and driers. Each hall 3 (have) a small administrative staff, but in the main the hall is run by the students themselves. A Committee is elected, with a chairman or president by the students.

A great many students prefer to live at least part of their time in rented accommodation. These houses are 4 (private) owned and rented out either room by room or as a whole to a group of students. There are usually 4-5 students to one house.

Students' houses, as they are called, known for old furniture, strained carpets, clashing colors and patterns on 5 (wall) and floors, dirty kitchen. I lived in one with large damp stains on the walls and even mice droppings. However the state of the house very much 6 (depend) on the students who live there and not all of them like to live in pigsties.

In fact the main reason why people so often prefer living in students' houses to being catered for and cleaned for in hall is because of the freedom. There are no 7 (rule) in a students' house except the ones you make yourself and there is comparative privacy. It also usually works out cheaper.

Мне очень нравится их столовая. Это большая красивая комната. Стены этой комнаты желтые. В середине этой комнаты стоит круглый стол. На нем зеленая скатерть и ваза с цветами. Жена Петрова очень любит цветы. В их квартире всегда много красивых цветов. В углу столовой стоит пианино. Сын Петрова Виктор очень любит музыку. Он хорошо играет на рояле. Направо от пианино стоит диван. Налево от пианино — телевизор. Они любят смотреть новые кинофильмы по телевизору. На стенах висят красивые картины. В столовой Петрова нет телефона. Там стоит радиоприемник и телевизор. Телефон (находится) в кабинете. Кабинет Петрова мне тоже нравится. Он небольшой. В нем стоит письменный стол и книжный шкаф. В шкафу много книг и журналов. We start planning our route long before summer holidays. The best place for me to spend summer holidays is mountains. Their unique nature and climate always bring unforgettable impressions. Of course, this type of travelling is not easy and sometimes dangerous. But I am sure my friends will give me a helping hand in any difficult situation and I am always ready to support them as well.

Теоретическая часть:

There are people who are neither actors, nor producers, yet they are so fond of the theatre that they cannot live without it.

Nick Petrov, a friend of mine, is one of such people. He never misses the opportunity of going to the best theatres in the capital.

Once he invited me to the theatre. He said that Pygmalion was on, with a new actress in the leading part. "The other day I saw her name on the posters," he added. "I wonder how she will manage that most difficult part!"...

We came to the theatre just before the beginning. The house was packed. Our seats were in the third row of the stalls and we could see and hear everything very well. Soon after we took our seats, the lights went slowly out and the curtain rose.

The performance of the talented actress made a deep impression on everybody. The audience greeted her with a storm of applause after each act. The rest of the cast were wonderful as usual. The best actors of the company performed that night.

During the interval the new actress was much spoken of. We learned that she had come to Moscow from one of the small towns of our country where she worked at the local theatre. The part of Eliza Doolittle was her favourite. The young actress's dream was to perform that part in the capital of our country. So she decided to go to Moscow.

One winter day she came to the theatre and asked the leading actors to give her the opportunity of performing before them a few scenes from Pygmalion. Her performance was so fine that she was immediately given the part of Eliza. During the rehearsals the famous actors of the theatre did their best to help her.

At last the great day had come when she appeared on the stage of one of the best Moscow theatres. All the audience from gallery to pit were applauding her. There was no doubt that she was a great success. The Moscow theatre-goers warmly greeted the appearance of a new talent.

There are many theatres in Moscow and many of them have good orchestras with popular conductors. Among them are the Bolshoi Opera House, the Mali Theatre, the Sovremennik Theatre, the Puppet Theatre, the Central Children's Theatre, the Satire Theatre, the Mayakovsky Theatre and, of course, two circuses. Most of people enjoy visiting them. So if you are a theatregoer you'll easily choose where to go and see (or listen to) a play, comedy, drama, tragedy, musical comedy, revue or variety, opera or ballet. You may search for information in newspapers and magazines as they publish adverts about what is on at the theatres.

You'd better buy tickets beforehand at the box-office of the theatre or at the theatre agency. In this case you have a better choice and little risk of getting bad seats. If it is the first night or a play is a hit, the house is usually sold out long before the day of the performance. You can book the tickets by the Internet and they are delivered to your home. The evening performances usually start at six or seven and finish at ten. You see the play in two or three acts, or scenes. Visiting the theatre you can get the best of everything: a first-rate orchestra that plays the overtures to the opera, famous conductors, you will listen to the celebrated opera singers, or enjoy ballet dancers or the play of the famous actors and actresses.

When you arrive at the theatre you go to a cloakroom. The cloakroom attendant takes your things and hangs them up. You may hire a pair of opera glasses from him. When the lights go up for the interval you go out into a foyer or to the refreshment room.

The best seats are those in the stalls, in the dress circle and the upper circle. Then comes the pit and last of all comes the gallery. Boxes, of course, are more expensive. The usher shows you to your seats. When the lights go down and the curtain rises, you see the stage, the scenery, the actors, singers and dancers. The actors come on to the stage and go off the stage.

The world famous theatre is, of course, the Bolshoi Theatre. It is the pride and symbol of Russian art. You ought to go there at least once during the season. It comprises both Opera and Ballet companies with many celebrities in them.

Yelena Obraztsova is one of them. She is a brilliant opera singer. Her programme includes nearly all-leading parts in such operas as "Carmen" by Bizet, "Tosca" by Puccini, "Boris Godunov" by Mussorgsky and others. She gives many concerts both at home and abroad. The voice of the singer is very beautiful.

Maya Plisetskaya, Galina Ulanova, Nadezhda Pavlova, Vyacheslav Gordeyev are the pride of the Russian ballet school. They were all winners of the international ballet competitions. They took part in different ballets such as "Giselle" by Adan, "Cinderella" by Prokofiev, "SwanLake" by Tchaikovsky, etc.

I can't say that I am a great theatregoer. I usually go to the theatre twice a year. Sometimes it is rather difficult to get tickets to some theatres more often. But once in a while I like to see a good ballet performance or an interesting play.

I'll never forget my first visit to the Bolshoi Theatre. My friend and I wanted to see the famous ballet "SwanLake" by Tchaikovsky. We knew the plot very well. We also knew some pieces of music from this ballet (Small Swans' Dance) and decided to see the whole performance. We bought the tickets in advance at the box-office of the theatre and came to the theatre half an hour before the show. Our seats were not far from the stage. They were in the third row of the stalls. From the very first minute I was deeply impressed by everything I saw on the stage. The scenery was beautifully set up. The dancing was exciting.

The costumes were fine. The music was thrilling. A first-class orchestra performed it. The ballet seemed to us a fairy-tale. We had never seen anything more wonderful. We enjoyed every minute of the ballet. After the first act we went to look over the theatre. We saw the boxes, the pit, the dress circle and the gallery. As it was the bell for the second act we went to our seats. When the curtain fell at the end of the performance and the leading actors appeared there came a storm of applause. It seemed that it would never end. The dancers received call after call. They were presented with a lot of flowers. We also applauded enthusiastically. The performance was a success. This ballet was worth seeing. We really spent a good time.

Я родилась в небольшом городе на Волге. В детстве я часто болела и поэтому не любила шумных подвижных игр. Я очень любила книги. В городе не было своего (местного) театра, но, когда приезжал театр из Саратова, я никогда не упускала возможности посмотреть его постановки (представления). Я была так увлечена театром, что решила после окончания школы (после того, как окончу школу) стать актрисой. Я принимала участие в концертах самодеятельности, несколько раз ездила на каникулы в Москву, чтобы посмотреть игру таких замечательных актеров, как Москвин, Пашенная, Качалов, Остужев, Тарасова.

Наконец, настал день (there came a day), когда я впервые вышла на сцену настоящего театра. Я была так взволнована, что не заметила, как в зале потухли огни, как поднялся занавес. Когда я заговорила, я не узнала своего голоса... Кончился первый акт, и занавес опустился. Я почувствовала, что плачу. Я была очень расстроена, так как мне казалось, что я сыграла свою роль очень плохо. Не знаю, сколько времени я плакала, но вдруг я увидела перед собой одного из своих товарищей. Он спросил меня: „Что с тобой? Почему ты плачешь? Разве ты не слышишь, как (зрители) тебе аплодируют. Ты так прекрасно сыграла свою роль!“ По правде говоря, сначала я ему не поверила, но потом ко мне подошел мой учитель, один из старейших актеров театра, и сказал мне, что ему очень понравилось мое исполнение. Остальные актеры тоже подходили ко мне и говорили, что я хорошо справилась с ролью. Этот день стал самым счастливым днем в моей жизни. Я поняла, что буду актрисой и что у меня есть много друзей, которые помогут мне в моей интересной и трудной работе.

Теоретическая часть:

Sometimes the routine of the life really gets people down. So, when they have time for leisure, they usually need something that can amuse and interest them. For a break from the ordinary, having different types of leisure is an easy and enjoyable option.

There is a greater variety of leisure pursuits and people have more spare time and money to spend on relaxation. Favourite ways to relax differ like tastes. You can enjoy watching a film on TV or going to the cinema. I suppose that it depends on the age and income.

In big cities it is often difficult to decide where to go out in the evening. Newspapers tell us what is on at cinemas and theatres. If you are a theatre-goer, you will choose a play you want to see. If you are a film fan, you will go to the cinema. When new interesting plays are on, it is not easy to get tickets, because the theatres play to full houses every night. Cinemas have been redesigned with four or more screens, each showing a different film at the same time.

There are a lot of genres of films to satisfy the tastes of any cinema-goers: sound and mute, colour and black-and-white, feature or documentary films, adventure films, thrillers, horror films, historical films, comedies, spy stories and science fiction films. Children of course enjoy cartoons. Foreign films are shown with subtitles or dubbed into Russian.

Слова much и little могут быть наречиями меры и степени и определять глагол. В таком случае они ставятся в предложении после глаголов, которые ими определяются.

В утвердительном предложении эти наречия обычно употребляются в сочетании с наречием степени very очень:

My son reads English very much. Мой сын очень много читает по-английски.

В отрицательных и вопросительных предложениях они могут употребляться и без наречия степени very:

Do you usually read much? Вы обычно много читаете?

Слова much много и little мало могут также быть неопределенными местоимениями и определять существительные. Much и little употребляются перед именами существительными, обозначающими вещества, материалы, отвлеченные понятия, не поддающиеся счету как отдельные единицы, и отвечают на вопрос how much? сколько?:

How much time a day do you work at your English? Сколько времени в день вы работаете над английским языком?

Does he usually do much or little work? Он обычно много или мало работает?

П р и м е ч а н и е. Следует обращать особое внимание на правильный перевод русских слов много и мало, так как в английском языке есть еще неопределенные местоимения many много и few мало. Местоимения many и few употребляются перед именами существительными, поддающимися счету как отдельные единицы и отвечают на вопрос how many? сколько?:

They receive many telegrams every day. Они получают много телеграмм каждый день.

Сравните:

much много chalk много мел many много pieces of chalk много кусков мел

little мало paper мало бумаги few мало newspapers мало газет

much много time много времени many много hours много часов

little мало work мало работы few мало workers мало рабочих

Вопросы и задания:

1. Переведите и разыграйте диалоги:

A.

Alice: Oh, what would you like to watch? There is a rom-com Must Love Dogs and a period drama Pride and Prejudice. What kinds of films do you like — action, adventure, musicals?

Brad: Films about people living in the future, on other planets.

Alice: Ah, sci-fi. I am not really into it.

Brad: Well, what about Jaws? They are showing that again here.

Alice: No, thanks. Horror films are not my thing.

Brad: OK, why don't you choose?

Alice: No, you invited me out, you choose.

Brad: All right. Don't blame me afterwards.

Alice: Agreed.

B.

Tom: Have you seen the film "The Queen"?

Brian: Yes, I have. I'm still under the influence of this powerful work of contemporary art.

Tom: Right you are. This film deserves to be estimated like this. What did you like the most in it?

Brian: I think the whole film is brilliant: the cast of the actors is perfect; Helen Mirren in her role of HM Elizabeth II is just superb; the music was well-chosen; and the producers' work was really hard and rewarding afterwards. What is your best episode in this film?

Tom: What I like in this film is that it is based on the real facts. The video clips from the BBC News programmes in 1996 made the film be a success.

Brian: Yes. the film was shot 10 years after Princess Diana's death in Paris. The producers took a risky and, like I said, rewarding step to show Britain on those mournful days. The focus was on the Queen and the Royal family, of course.

Tom: If I had a chance to write my own letter of appreciation to the producers of the film, I would do that right away.

Brain: Don't you have this opportunity? Why don't we log on the official site of the film: www.theQueen/film and search for a blog like this just create our own one?

Tom: Oh, Brian! As usual, you are generating bright ideas! Where should I buy a wit like yours? Let's surf the Net.

Brian: Oky-doky!

3. Переведите текст:

From about 1930 until very recent times the cinema enjoyed great popularity in Britain. The first cinemas were the most impressive buildings in the street of many towns. Later, the rapid spread of television brought a great change. The number of cinema -goers dropped and, as a result, 1,500 cinemas were closed. Many of the films were mostly imported from America. Some films were shot in Britain and often directed by British directors, but with American money. The British cinematography was not able to provide the cinema houses with films of its own production.

It was only during World War II and after that the British producers began to make their own films. In this way they voiced their protest against Britain's dependence on American cinema. A glimpse of hope was seen in such productions as «Hamlet», produced by Laurence Olivier, «Great Expectations» and «Oliver Twist» by U. Lynn, and more recently in «Room at the Top», «Look Back in Anger», a number of TV plays, serials and documentaries.

But still the great majority of films dominating the British screen are Hollywood production. Among them are American-made thrillers, westerners, spy-films, horror-films, which have their influence on the British youth. The cinema monopolies are little concerned with the ill-effects of such films as long as they bring in profits. Commercial art which can be cheaply mass produced leaves little, if any, room for real art. This gives an impulse, however, to the young talented film writers, actors and producers to unite their efforts in producing really good films.

4. Переведите:

I can enjoy watching a good film. Though I must say that, I don't spend much time in front of the TV screen. I also like going to the cinema. Before going to the cinema I usually find the information in the TV-guide magazine about the films that are on. Such magazines also publish a short review on the new films alongside with the critic's commentary and the list of cinema houses where the films are on, the time of the show and the prices of the tickets. My family and I prefer going to matinee performances, because you can buy tickets just before the show and the tickets are cheaper than for the evening show.

Теоретическая часть:

WHY DO WE GO TO MUSEUMS?

Why do people attend art museums? What compels us? What do we hope to see? Do we aim to learn while we are there? What is a good museum experience? I know why I attend museums as an interested artist and advocate for the arts, but I ask the question again as someone within the museum. Why do people come through our doors? For the art? For the programs? Why do they come back?

While visitors' reasons for coming were not the same every time, they tended to exhibit a dominant motivation. The following lists each motivational identity and characterization as a visitor:

Explorers—Explorers come because attending museums interests them and appeals to their curiosity. If you asked them if they like art they would say 'yes,' if you asked them if they came for something in particular, they would probably say 'no,' they 'just like art and know what they like when they see it.' They do not have concrete learning goals, like 'I'm going to go to the MIA to learn everything I can about Expressionism,' but they like to know new things. This type could really be anyone. Explorers' goal is to satisfy a curiosity. They may or may not know how to use the space.

Facilitator—Facilitators come because of someone else. They are perhaps bringing a friend or a group of people—possibly youth or students—because they think that the visit would benefit the other party or parties, not because of a personal need. Their personal need is to make a good experience for others.

Experience Seeker—An experience seeker is a person who is checking off a list of things to do, whether personal or as a tourist. They want to see the thing that is iconic of that place, they want to do 'what you're supposed to do in that city or area.' They may need to see the museum's highlights to feel satisfied.

Professional/Hobbyist—This category includes teachers, educators, museum professionals, artists, and people in related fields. Their goals may range by their particular role as a professional or hobbyist; a photographer may attend with the goal in mind to take pictures or to learn about photography through exhibits. An art educator may be interested in the art as in their field of interest, or they may be planning a lesson, etc.

Rechargers—Rechargers find the museum a place to 'get away from it all,' to decompress, and their visit is almost a spiritual one. They tend to avoid crowds or sensations and are fairly self-sufficient. A successful visit for them will leave them with the feeling that they have gotten away.

Глагол to be в прошедшем времени группы Indefinite имеет форму was для ед. числа и were для мн. числа, а также для 2-го лица ед. числа:

Единственное число		Множественное число
I was	я был	we were	мы были
you were	вы были	you were	вы были
he was	он был

she was	она была	they were	они были
it was	оно было

Как и в настоящем времени, для образования вопросительной формы в прошедшем времени глагол to be ставится перед подлежащим:

Was he? Был ли он? Were you? Были ли вы?

Отрицательная форма образуется при помощи частицы not, которая ставится после глагола:

I was not. Я не был. He was not. Он не был. They were not. Они не были.

В разговорной речи часто употребляются сокращенные отрицательные формы: wasn't и weren't: He wasn't there. Его там не было.

Вопросы и задания:

1. Согласитесь или опровергните мнение:

1. Museums make you feel good

Times are tight in this economic climate, and it's often easy to use a museum admission price as an excuse to stay at home. However, people are happier when they spend money on experiences rather than material purchases. That is, as we revisit the memory of our trip to the museum, we have a tendency to psychologically weed out any negative memories (should there be any). Experiences, such as visiting a museum, can also become a meaningful part of one's identity and contribute to successful social relationships in a manner that material items cannot. So consider foregoing an outing for items that you may not need; going to the museum will make you happier in the long run.

2. Museums make you smarter

There is no doubt that a primary role of museums is to engage and educate the community. Museum exhibits inspire interest in an area of study, item, time period, or an idea – but there's more going on in museums in regard to education than one might think. Schools rely heavily on museums to enhance their curriculum. The New York Museum Education Act, for example, aims to create a partnership between schools and cultural institutions to prepare students for the 21st century. Galleries are becoming classrooms, and not just for kids. Even the museums themselves have interesting histories to inspire and educate visitors. It becomes nearly impossible to exit a museum without having gained any information or insight during your visit.

3. Museums provide an effective way of learning

Museums are examples of informal learning environments, which means they are devoted primarily to informal education — a lifelong process whereby individuals acquire attitudes, values, skills and knowledge from daily experience and the educative influences and resources in his or her environment. Even outside of museums, informal learning plays a pivotal role in how we take in the world around us. A single visit to a museum can expose visitors to in-depth information on a subject, and the nature of the museum environment is one in which you can spend as much or as little time as you like exploring exhibits. The environment allows you to form your own unique experiences and take away information that interests you. Despite the success that museums have already had in educating visitors, there continue to be ongoing discussions among institutions in regard to increasing museums' ability to connect through informal learning.

4. Museums are community centers

Museums are a lot more than collections of artifacts; they allow you to meet with neighbors, discuss thoughts and opinions, and become an active part of the community. Museums are increasingly holding art chats, book signings, professional development classes, and even farmer's markets. Something is going on everywhere – just pull up the web page of a local museum (or hop on their Facebook page) and see what they have to offer!

5. Museums inspire

Museums provide inspiration through personal connections with visitors, and not only on-site and through physical community outreach efforts; some even manage to connect through their social networks. These kinds of personal memories created at museums do not expire.

6. Museums are a great way to spend time with friends and family

Museums provide a great excuse to spend time with friends and family in a positive way. Personal connections can be made with museums and also with family members during visits. A day at the museum often translates to a day spent with loved ones as fathers and mothers transform into tour guides, and the environment provides a shared learning experience.

In the 18th and 19th centuries the British aristocracy and rich merchants filled their houses with valuable paintings, sculptures, furniture and ornaments which they brought back from their travels abroad. So their collections can be seen today in museums, country houses, palaces and castles. There are museums and art galleries in most cities as well.

The national museums and art galleries in London contain some of the most comprehensive collections of objects of artistic, archaeological, scientific, historical and general interest. They are the British Museum, the Victoria and Albert Museum, the Science Museum, the National Gallery, the Tate Gallery, the National Portrait Gallery, the Geological Museum, the Natural History Museum. There are national museums and art galleries in Scotland, Wales, and Northern Ireland. Some of them are the National Museum of Wales in Cardiff, the Ulster Museum in Belfast. The oldest museum the world was founded in 1683 in Oxford.

There is much to see in Britain, especially in its heart, London. The British Museum is the largest in the world. It was built between 1823 and 1852. Its magnificent library has the right, by law, to one copy of every publication printed in Britain. Things to single out include the Rosetta Stone in the Southern Egyptian Gallery, and, in the manuscript room, the Magna Charta, Nelson's log book and Scott's last diary. The Victoria and Albert Museum displays fine and applied arts of all countries and periods. Of special interest are the costume displays, the jewellery and porcelain, belonging to the Crown, and the best collection of English miniatures to be found in the country.

The National Gallery is the largest in the country. It exhibits all schools of European paintings from the 13th to the 19th century. The Tate Gallery is really three galleries: a national gallery of British art, a gallery of modern sculpture and a gallery of modern foreign paintings. Among the treasures to be found are modern sculpture by Rodin, Moore and Epstein.

The Science museum houses the national collections of science, industry and medicine. Many exhibits are full size and there are many historic objects of scientific and technological significance. Additionally there are exhibits sectioned to show their internal construction, and working models. Most cities and towns have museums devoted to arts, archaeology and natural history, usually administered by the local authorities or by individuals. Many private art collections are open to the public. An increasing number of open air museums depict the regional life of an area. About 2,000 museums and art galleries in Britain attract over 68 million people a year.

Он имеет очень большую коллекцию и является одним из самых больших музеев в Великобритании. Коллекция дома-музея насчитывает около 100 автобусов. Из-за маленького размера здания музей не может вместить все экспонаты, поэтому часть коллекции находится вне территории музея. Некоторые транспортные средства находятся на реставрации и в скором времени они будут показаны. Также в коллекции два троллейбуса корпорации Ashton, опытный образец трамвая Metrolink и Манчестерский трамвай Корпорации 1901 года. Теоретическая часть:

Many of us have pets - dogs and cats. They are like members of our family. In England many years ago farmers displayed the same love for horses. Robbin, Dobbin and Hobbin were the names which farmers gave to their horses most often. The name Hobbin was changed into Hobby and became the word used for toy horses. And only many years later the word "hobby" began to be used in its modern meaning - "something", what you do in your spare time. Hobbies differ like tastes. Hobbies are divided into four large classes. They are doing things, making things, collecting things and learning things.

The most popular hobby of all groups is doing something. It includes everything from gardening to travelling and from chess to volleyball.

Gardening is one of the oldest of man's hobbies. It is a well-known fact that the English are very popular of gardening and growing flowers, especially roses.

Both grown-ups and children are fond of playing computer games. It's new, but a popular hobby.

Making things includes drawing, painting, making sculpture and designing costumes. Some are interested in music. They collect records and tape recordings, others write music or play musical instruments.

Almost everyone collects something at some period of his life: stamps, coins, match-boxes, books, records, postcards, toys and watches. And very often some collections are housed in museums and galleries. I realize that collecting things as a hobby depends on one's age and income. There are different clubs of collectors, where people can show us their collection and tell us why it is special. At other times they have a swap-shop, and people exchange duplicates, or swap something they don't want for something new. That can be fun because most people like bargaining. Some of our keenest collectors are going to tell you about their hobbies.

No matter what kind of hobby a person has, he always has an opportunity of learning from it and that becomes the most exciting aspect of a hobby. Hobbies help you to choose your future profession very often. If you've chosen a hobby according to your character and taste you are lucky because your life becomes more interesting.

Падежи имен существительных. Притяжательный падеж.

1. В английском языке имена существительные имеют два падежа: общий и притяжательный. Существительные в общем падеже не принимают никакого окончания, а в притяжательном падеже принимают особое окончание.

2. Существительные в общем падеже (aman, achild, etc.) употребляются в функциях: подлежащего, именной части составного сказуемого, беспредложного (прямого и косвенного) и предложного дополнений, а также обстоятельства после предлога. Отношение существительного в общем падеже к другим словам в предложении определяется его местом в предложении или предлогами:

Do you see children in the park? Видите ли вы детей в парке?

(место в предложении показывает, что это прямое дополнение, которое соответствует в русском языке дополнению в винительном падеже).

The workers of this factory рабочие этого завода

(предлог of передает отношение, выражаемое в русском языке родительным падежом).

3. Существительное в притяжательном падеже обозначает принадлежность предмета или его отношение к другому предмету, отвечает на вопрос whose? (чей?), употребляется в функции определения и стоит перед определяемым существительным. Существительное в притяжательном падеже принимает окончание -s, которое произносится по правилам чтения буквы sw конце слова.

Как правило, в форме притяжательного падежа употребляются имена существительные, обозначающие одушевленные предметы: this man's newspaper газета этого человека

Притяжательный падеж имен существительных во мн. числе образуется посредством прибавления на письме апострофа (') а в чтении и речи ничем не отличается от ед. числа:

my friend's sister сестра моего друга
my friends' sisters сестры моих друзей

Притяжательный падеж существительных men, women, children образуется так же, как и в ед. числе, т.е. прибавлением окончания 's: these men's newspapers газеты этих людей

Как правило, в таких словосочетаниях артикль откосится к существительному, стоящему в притяжательном падеже, поэтому, если в притяжательном падеже стоит имя собственное, артикль отсутствует: Peter's room комната Петра

4. Если в русском языке два существительных в родительном падеже в функции определения следуют одно за другим, как, например, в словосочетании имя сына моей сестры, то в английском языке обычно одно из них стоит с предлогом of, а другое — в притяжательном падеже:

the name of my sister's son имя сына моей сестры
the father of my brother's wife отец жены моего брата

5. В словосочетаниях типа at my friend's house (place), at Comrade Petrov's office, at the baker's shop слова house (place) дом, office учреждение, контора, shop магазин обычно опускаются, и в речи употребляются словосочетания at my friend's моего друга, at Comrade Petrov's товарища Петрова, at the baker's в булочной.

Sport is an exciting creative sphere of hard work and competition. It's a sphere where men and women want to surpass themselves. In sport everyone seeks answers to his own problems. Not without reason do people say that sport is a world of its own and it can't mean the same to everybody.

People all over the world are fond of sports and games. Sport makes people healthy, keeps them fit. We know that there is a sound mind in a sound body. Sport makes a person's character. It's good for moral development as well. It's a way to meet other people, even people from other countries. There are no social differences in sport. Everybody is equal. Sport teaches us how to lose as well as to win.

Many people do sports on their personal initiative. They go in for skiing, skating, tennis, swimming, volleyball, football, body-building, etc. All the necessary facilities are provided for them: stadiums, sports grounds, swimming pools, skating rinks, football fields. Sport is paid much attention to in our educational establishments.

Everybody chooses a kind of sports he or she is interested in. Every week thousands of people do sports and millions watch sports programmes on TV, read sport news in newspapers and listen to sport reports on the radio.

Sports tourism is a type of active holiday. The purpose of a sporting tour is to exercise and to keep physically fit. At the same time travellers enjoy natural surroundings, fresh air and clean water. Travellers combine action and relaxation during a sporting holiday. Tourist companies offer hiking, cycling, boating, rafting and other kinds of sporting tours.

Very often sporting tours require preparation and special training. First the tour instructors plan the itinerary. Then they train tourists how to use sporting equipment. They explain all the details of the route. They define means of transportation, provision of meals and overnight accommodation. During some tours travellers carry their luggage and sporting equipment themselves. During some other tours special carriers transfer the luggage for them. It depends on the difficulty of the tour, on the tourist destination and the local practice. Within sports tourism there is water tourism, mountain tourism and mountaineering, skiing. Мой друг Виктор и я любим отдыхать (проводить отпуск) вместе. Оба мы спортсмены, но мы занимаемся совершенно разными видами спорта. Зимой я люблю ходить на лыжах, а Виктор — кататься на коньках. Летом мы часто ходим на стадион. Я играю в теннис, а он плавает. Плавает он прекрасно (очень хорошо).

Однажды мы с Виктором решили провести выходной день на реке. Мы отправились туда рано утром, но было уже довольно тепло. Небо было ясное и безоблачное.

Как только мы добрались до места, Виктор побежал в воду, а я лег на песок (sand) и начал читать. Книга была очень интересная, и я забыл о Викторе. Читая такую захватывающую книгу, можно действительно забыть обо всем.

Когда я посмотрел на часы, к моему большому удивлению, я увидел, что было уже два часа дня.

— „Виктор!“ — крикнул я. Но ответа не последовало (не было). Сначала я подумал, что он тоже где-нибудь читает и не слышит, как я его зову. Я позвал его еще раз, затем встал и посмотрел вокруг. Виктора нигде не было видно (wasnowheretobeseen). „Он утонул!“ (tobedrowned) подумал я и тотчас побежал за спасательной лодкой (alife-boat). Лодка отправилась искать утонувшего (adrownedman).

Несколько человек начали нырять (todive), пытаясь найти его. Я был очень расстроен, и хотя пловец я был плохой, тоже стал нырять, стараясь найти друга. Вскоре я очень устал и почувствовал, что тоже могу утонуть. В этот момент, примерно на расстоянии двух метров от меня, появилась голова Виктора!

„Что ты здесь делаешь?“ закричал я, не поверив своим глазам.

„Я помогаю искать утопленника.“ ответил он с удивлением. Я не знал, что делать — сердиться или радоваться.

„Послушай, это же тебя ищут (они ищут тебя),“ крикнул я, когда он собирался снова нырнуть.

А когда мы, наконец, добрались до берега, Виктор, смеясь, рассказал мне следующее: „Я переплыл через реку на противоположный берег, лег отдохнуть и уснул. Когда я проснулся, было уже два часа. Я услышал какие-то голоса на реке и понял, что кто-то утонул. Я и поплыл спасать его“.

EASY WAYS FOR BUSY PEOPLE TO STAY FIT

If you're a student, professional, parent, or someone with a stressful job, you know how easily the day can slip by without finishing everything you need to do. Here are a few tricks for staying fit with a busy lifestyle:

(1) Wake up 15-30 minutes early. Whatever time you have work or university you know down to the very second what time you need to be out of your door to get there on time. So, the trick to staying fit is to wake up when your alarm sounds the first time and go out for an early morning walk before getting ready for work.

(2) Skip the elevator to stay fit. There are hidden ways to exercise everywhere you go. Just by looking around, you can spot ways to burn 10 calories here, 5 calories there. These add up to a couple hundred every day which translates into fitness.

(3) Why do we all drive around for 5 minutes looking for a parking spot closer? You can skip this by parking at the end of the parking lot.

(4) This may seem a little contradictory, but it works. If you eat 3 meals a day, try splitting each meal in half and eat 6 meals per day. Make sure you don't eat more calories, but more meals. This causes your metabolism to work all day. Instead of storing extra calories for fat, your body will be able to access nutrients all day long for energy.

(5) Get a hobby that keeps you fit. Go fishing, biking, skating. Play basketball, football, tennis! Anything that bumps your heart rate will help keep you fit. Also, your mind will be sharpened by learning something new!

(6) 8 glasses a day if you can will help your body digest food and expel waste. Beyond helping you get fit, drinking water has many other benefits, including healthy kidney function.

(7) Did you know flossing increases your life expectancy dramatically? Here's how: blood vessels reach very close to the surface of your gums. Your mouth has an incredible amount of bacteria and other bad stuff which goes into your blood, for instance, the blood goes to your heart where it's pumped to the rest of your body. Healthy gums = healthy blood = healthy heart = fit body. Hopefully you're not so busy that you can't floss!

Keep in mind, getting fit takes time. It's best to integrate these steps slowly into your life so that they become enjoyable habits. You don't want to overwhelm yourself and get frustrated by doing all these new things at once. Have fun, and slowly you will see a change in your energy and body.

4. Переведите:

Где вы работали четыре года тому назад? — Я работал на большом заводе.

— По каким дням вы работали? — Мы работали в понедельник, вторник, среду, четверг, пятницу и субботу.

— Вы работали иногда в воскресенье? — Нет, я учился. Я готовил по воскресеньям свои домашние задания.

— Что вы изучали? — Я изучал французский язык.

— Вы брали уроки французского языка после рабочего дня или утром?

— Я обычно занимался языком вечером.

— Когда вы возвращались домой после урока? — Я обычно возвращался домой в восемь часов вечера, но иногда я оставался на заводе после урока, чтобы обсудить некоторые вопросы со своим преподавателем. Преподаватель не всегда отвечал на мои вопросы на уроке, и мы обсуждали их после урока.

— Вы хорошо говорили и читали по-французски? Какие отметки вы обычно получали? — Я часто получал хорошие отметки. Я очень много работал над французским языком дома.

As for me, I like sports too, though in theory at present. When I was a junior pupil I went in for sports. I liked swimming, so I went to the swimming pool every day. You know how it always happens when you grow up. The habits gradually change and at present I hardly do sports seriously. Though from time to time I do my morning exercises.

But I am sure if you want to keep fit you must go in for sports because sport makes people strong, healthy and optimistic.

Многие переходные глаголы имеют при себе, кроме прямого дополнения, второе беспредложное косвенное дополнение, отвечающее на вопрос whom? кому? и обозначающее лицо, к которому обращено действие. Это беспредложное косвенное дополнение соответствует в русском языке косвенному дополнению в дательном падеже без предлога. Оно выражается существительным в общем падеже или местоимением в объектном падеже и стоит между глаголом и прямым дополнением:

I often send them letters. Я часто посылаю на письма.

Лицо, к которому обращено действие, может быть также выражено дополнением с предлогом to, если оно стоит после прямого дополнения:

I often send letters to them. Я часто посылаю письма им.

Дополнение с предлогом to, как правило, употребляется:

а) чтобы особо выделить лицо, к которому обращено действие:

Please send this letter to Comrade Klimov, (not to Comrade Petrov)

Пошлите это письмо товарищу Климову, (а не товарищу Петрову).

б) когда прямое дополнение выражено местоимением:

I wrote but a telegram for Mr Smith this morning. Please send it off to him now.

Я написал утром телеграмму господину Смит. Пошлите ее ему сейчас, пожалуйста.

I got an interesting letter yesterday, and I'm going to read it to you now.

Я получил интересное письмо вчера и собираюсь прочитать его вам сейчас.

Вопросы и задания:

1. Переведите на русский язык:

There are a lot of types of holidays. Some people prefer skiing holiday or mountaineering holiday. Others like seaside holiday or scuba diving. For others it'd be something extreme. For example, going on a safari to discover Africa by Land Rover seems a rather attractive idea. Teenagers enjoy camping holiday. If I went to the seaside, I'd take a swimming costume, suntan lotion, sunglasses, a cap, light clothes, a camera and a first-aid kit. I think such holidays should last for a fortnight (two weeks). But if you decided to go to the mountain skiing resort, you should take warm clothes, a skiing costume, skis, goggles, a camera and first-aid kit. You can enjoy your stay in beautiful chalets with real wood fires to keep you warm even in the worst snowstorms.

2. Ответьте на вопросы:

1. Why are some people afraid of travelling by sea?
2. Would you like to make a round-the-world cruise? What prevents you from making it?
3. What do passengers usually do during the sea voyage?
4. What is the most exciting thing in a sea voyage?
5. How would you feel if the sea became rough?

3. Составьте предложения со словами и словосочетаниями:

boat – лодка, пароход

pleasureboat – прогулочный катер

lifejacket – спасательный жилет ferry – паром
floatel – плавучий отель vessel – судно
gangway – трап
deck – палуба

6. Это новое океанское судно, оно совершает свое первое плавание.
7. Вы не страдаете от морской болезни? – К счастью, нет.

5. Измените место прямого дополнения, где это возможно:

Travellingbyseaismostly for those who are going on holiday and want a pleasant voyage. You can see the rise and fall of the waves, feel the fresh sea wind blowing in your face and hear the cry of the sea-gulls. On board a large cruise ship people cross oceans and visit other countries. The ship stops for a day or two in different ports and people go ashore on excursions. Crossing the ocean is a magnificent and very long voyage.

A Voyage Round Europe

- Hello, Nina. Haven't seen you for ages. Where have you been?
- Oh, I've had a most exciting experience. The fact is, Dad took me on a cruise round Europe.
- How wonderful! I suppose you've seen lots of interesting things. Do tell me all about it. Did you call at any European ports?
- We did. Quite a number of them. At each port we went ashore and made the most wonderful trips into the depths of the country. I can boast of having seen Rome and London, Paris and Athens.
- I must say that I feel pretty envious. Did you have a pleasant voyage?

- Rather fine, except the two days after Gibraltar. It was rough in the Atlantic, and I had to keep to my cabin.
- Did you go ashore in Spain?
- No, we didn't. We only saw the coast from the deck. It didn't look very inviting, rather bare and monotonous in fact.
- And did you bathe in the Mediterranean?
- Not only there, but in the Atlantic Ocean too. There are wonderful beaches at some places on the west coast of France. Swimming is just delightful there.
- Well, I'm glad that your journey was a success.

Have you a large family? У вас большая семья?

П р и м е ч а н и е. В современном английском языке есть тенденция образовывать вопросительную форму глагола to have в прошедшем времени группы Indefinite (а в Америке и в настоящем времени) при помощи вспомогательного глагола to do:

Did he already have a son ten years ago? У него уже был сын десять лет тому назад?

Вопросительная форма глагола to have в будущем времени группы Indefinite образуется с помощью вспомогательных глаголов shall и will, которые ставятся перед подлежащим:

Shall we have many new students in our group next year? У нас в группе будет много новых студентов в будущем году?

I shall not have this book tomorrow. Завтра у меня не будет этой книги.

П р и м е ч а н и е. Когда глагол to have употребляется не самостоятельно, а как часть словосочетания, обозначающего процесс, как, например, to have dinner (breakfast, supper), обедать, (завтракать, ужинать), to have a lesson заниматься, а также в словосочетании to have much work to do иметь много дела, работы, его вопросительная и отрицательная формы настоящего и прошедшего времени группы Indefinite также образуются с помощью вспомогательного глагола to do в соответствующей временной форме.

Have you got an interesting У вас есть интересная книга book to read? — No, I haven't. (почитать), — Нет.

I haven't got your book here. У меня нет вашей книги здесь.

There are a lot of wonders in Russia. But it is true to say that Russia is the most famous for its people. To understand Russian people, one must know from where they come. Nature has not been kind to Russia. Winters in Russia are cold, windy and snowy. So in old Russia people could do little during long winter months.

But in spring there was a lot to be done, and in a short period of time. Perhaps, this explains why the Russians are often inactive for long periods of time and then show bursts of energy. The harsh climate explains the Russians' strength and their ability to overcome hardships. Climate has also made them cautious. Yet most of the Russians are open people. They are neither reticent nor reserved as the British. Russian people love to sit down for a nice long chat. They like having parties and receiving guests. The Russians are known to be hospitable people. According to old traditions, a guest should always be welcomed with the symbol of life-giving food — bread and salt.

Russian people have always loved their country, though life in Russia has never been easy. They have always been devoted to their Motherland, fighting for peace and independence against enemies. We can't say that the Russians are conservative. On the contrary, they encourage research and innovation. Still, there are a lot of customs and traditions in their life. For example, before leaving on a journey, many Russian people sit down quietly together for a few minutes. Russian people are clever and talented. We can name a lot of outstanding.

Russians who are well-known all over the world. And we can say that we are a nation that has done a lot for the world civilization. When foreign guests leave Russia, they usually say different things about the country. Some of them like it, others don't. But practically everybody agrees that Russian people are wonderful. They are friendly, kind and very hospitable.

Практика речи: Путешествуем по России.

знать: базовые нормы употребления лексики, фонетики и грамматики

Теоретическая часть:

Millions of people all over the world are fond of travelling. They travel to see other countries and continents, to discover different ways of life, to meet different people and to practice foreign languages. It goes without saying that travelling broadens the mind. While travelling, we can see and learn a lot of things that we can never learn staying at home and watching TV or reading books. That's why a lot of foreign people come to Russia to get acquainted with Russian culture, with Russian customs and traditions.

Russia has always been a country of mystery and attraction for foreigners. There are a lot of villages and towns in Russia famous for their specific crafts: painted boxes in Palekh, wooden tableware in Khokhloma and toys in Dymkovo. Thousands of foreigners visit Russia to enjoy typical Russian log houses, decorated with wood carving.

Tourists like to visit old Russian towns and cities famous for their ancient architecture. They are especially attracted by Russian orthodox cathedrals, churches and monasteries. One of the most interesting old cities in Russia is Novgorod, or Novgorod the Great, as it was called in the old times. It is a treasury of architecture, painting and applied art created over the 11th to 17th centuries. The first records of the city on the Volkhov River date back to the year 859. Now Novgorod has expanded far beyond its former limits. It is an important industrial and cultural centre, located on the busy highway linking Moscow and St. Petersburg.

The focal point of the city is the Detinets, or the Kremlin. The present-day Kremlin stems largely from the 15th century. Several alterations made in the 16th and 17th centuries were minor and did not affect its appearance. Novgorod's contribution to the development of Russian culture is outstanding. No other city excels Novgorod in the number of ancient monuments of architecture. The Novgorod Museum of History, Architecture and Art shows visitors the history of medieval Novgorod. Its artistic value lies primarily in its collection of medieval icon painting.

Of course, every foreigner should visit St. Petersburg, the second largest city in Russia and one of the most beautiful cities in the world. It was founded in 1703 by Peter the Great at the mouth of the Neva River. Now it is an important industrial, cultural and educational centre.

St. Petersburg is indeed a wonderful city: at every turn there is something to catch your eye. The Winter Palace, St. Isaac's Cathedral, the Peter and Paul Fortress, the Admiralty building attract thousands of tourists from every corner of the world. Petersburg's many museums house some of the world's most famous art collections. The Hermitage and the Russian Museum, for example, contain the richest collections of pictures in the world.

The city is called the Northern Venice because there are more than a hundred rivers, arms and canals there with artistically decorated bridges. It's also famous for its beautiful white nights. There are a lot of Hero cities in our country. And I would recommend my foreign friends to visit one of them. Volgograd is a legendary city, because here in 1943 the Soviet Army won the great and glorious victory over the fascists. The city was completely ruined during the war, but now it is a beautiful city again. It stands on the banks of the great Russian river Volga. The symbol of Volgograd is the Mamaev Hill. It was the centre of fighting during the heroic defence of Stalingrad.

Now there is a great memorial there. Besides, you can visit the Stalingrad Battle Panorama Museum, which is situated on the bank of the Volga. The centre of Volgograd is the Square of the Fallen Heroes. In the middle of it there is a granite obelisk and the common graves of the heroes of the Civil War and the Great Patriotic War. At the foot of the memorial you can see the Eternal Flame. Now Volgograd is a big industrial and cultural centre.

There are a lot of other interesting towns and cities in Russia, which are all worth visiting.

Неопределенные местоимения some и any

Для обозначения неопределенного (небольшого) количества предметов или вещества употребляются неопределенные местоимения some и any. Они обычно являются определениями к существительным и стоят вместо артикля.

1. Some употребляется, как правило, в утвердительных предложениях. Выполняя функцию определения к исчисляемому существительному во мн. числе, some имеет значение несколько, некоторые: Some children do not like to wash. Некоторые дети не любят умываться.

Выполняя функцию определения к исчисляемому существительному в ед. числе, some имеет значение какой-нибудь:

Give me some interesting book.

Дайте мне какую-нибудь интересную книгу.

Выполняя функцию определения к неисчисляемому существительному, some имеет значение немного, некоторое количество: He took some money and went to the cinema. Он взял немного денег и пошел в кино.

2. Any употребляется, как правило, в вопросительных и отрицательных предложениях.

Выполняя функцию определения к исчисляемому существительному во мн. числе any имеет значение какие-либо, какие-нибудь, а в сочетании с отрицательным словом not оно означает никакие: Don't take any books here! Не берите (никаких) книг здесь!

Выполняя функцию определения к неисчисляемому существительному, any имеет значение сколько-нибудь:

Is there any chalk here? Здесь есть мел (сколько-нибудь мела)?

3. Как видно из приведенных выше примеров, any очень часто на русский язык совсем не переводится. Some на русский язык не переводится, когда оно, подобно русскому родительному падежу, употребляется для обозначения части от целого (Дайте мне бумагаи, хлебаа, водаи и т.д.).

4. Если в общем вопросе с оборотом there is/are и с глаголом to have имеется слово any, то в кратком утвердительном ответе употребляется слово some, а в кратком отрицательном ответе употребляется слово any: Are there any pictures in this book? В этой книге есть (какие-нибудь) картинки?

Вопросы и задания:

1. Опишите вашу самую интересную экскурсию.

2. Переведите:

The sun was rising from behind the Urals. The mountains were unusually beautiful that fine summer morning.

All the passengers of an express train were fast asleep. Only Sui Mei, a young Chinese tourist, | was still sitting at the window and looking at the rising sun. In front of her, on the table there was a thick note-book with golden letters: "Moscow". The girl looked at the letters, then slowly opened the note-book and read:

"June 15, 1957.

Yalta. What a beautiful town! It's one of the most famous places in the Crimea. Hundreds of people come to the Black Sea for holiday. One can meet here a peasant from the Ukraine and a worker from Siberia, a sailor from the Far East and a student from the Don..."

She turned over some pages:

"July 17.

Our tourist ship is sailing down the Volga, the famous Russian river. Here and there one can see towns, villages, peasants in the fields... Here and there one can hear fine Russian songs, the songs which you will never forget..."

"July 21.

The heroic city of Stalingrad...

The people of Stalingrad are proud of their city.

They showed us many interesting things: their new comfortable houses, theatres and their large tractor plant..."

Then Sui Mei took her pen, turned over some more pages and wrote down:

"August 20, 1957.

In a few days we shall leave this land. I hope next year I shall come back here not as a tourist, but as a student of Moscow University".

She stopped and closed her eyes. She was thinking of her free country, of its happy future. She was thinking of the friendship between the Chinese and the Russian people...

The train was running further and further to the East, past high mountains, rivers, lakes and beautiful forests of Russia...

Moscow is located in the middle of the East European Plain. It lies at a height of 30—35 meters above the Moskva River and about 150 meters above sea level. Moscow occupies more than 1,000 square kilometers. The boundary of the city is the Moscow Ring Road, which is situated at 15-17 kilometers from the city center. The city extends for 42 kilometers from the North to the South and for 35 kilometers from the East to the West. More than 10 million people are now living in Moscow.

Moscow is a separate subject of the Russian Federation. It is governed by a mayor and by a 35-member Duma (assembly). As the capital of Russia, Moscow is the seat of the national government. The Kremlin palaces house the majority of offices. The prime minister's offices occupy the House of Government of the Russian Federation, usually known as the White House.

The first wooden fortress (The Kremlin) was built by order of Prince Yuri Dolgoruky on a hill near the Moskva and the Neglinnaya rivers. The date of Moscow's founding was April 4, 1147, when Moscow was first mentioned in Russian chronicles. The Kremlin now is Moscow's geographical, historical and political centre.

The official symbol of Moscow is a dark-red shield, where an ancient Old-Russian subject is depicted: St. George fighting down the Serpent. Moscow carries out trading communications with about 200 countries. More than 2,500 foreign companies are registered and more than 7 thousand enterprises deal with the foreign capital. About 100 international exhibitions and fairs take place in Moscow every year.

The climate in Moscow is temperate continental. It is mainly characterized by hot summers and very cold winters. The amplitude in annual temperature range is 28 C. The cold period starts in October and ends in April. Snow falls in November and stays till March. The warm weather comes in June and stays till September.

The Kremlin, the Red Square, the Tretyakov Gallery, the Bolshoi Theater, Pushkin Museum of Fine Arts, Armory, Novodevichy Convent, St. Basil Cathedral, Arbat Street attract numerous tourists.

The Kremlin is the historical centre of the city, the heart of Moscow. This is one of the most famous museums of the world, which attracts a lot of tourists from all over the world. The Kremlin is located on a hill washed from one side by the Moscow River.

The Kremlin is a triangular by thick brick walls in the center of Moscow. The Kremlin (which means fortress) was first built in the 12th century from wood. Then during the 15th century it was expanded by Tsar Ivan III (Ivan the Great). His architects designed the magnificent Cathedral of the Assumption and the Faceted Palace.

Today the Kremlin is home to the Russian President and his administration. Many buildings in the Kremlin are open to the tourists.

At the Kremlin you can see the Tsar Bell and the Tsar Cannon and visit Annunciation (Blagoveschensky), Archangel (Arkhangelsky) and Assumption (Voznesensky) Cathedrals, the Bell - Tower of Ivan the Great and the Church of the Twelve Apostles — the wonderful monuments of Russian church architecture with unique richly decorated interiors.

The interior of the Cathedral of the Annunciation is painted with beautiful frescoes first done by the Russian artist Feodosy in 1508. The iconostasis of the Cathedral is considered to be the finest in all Russia.

The walls of the Cathedral of the Archangel are covered in frescoes showing the Russian history. All Russian Tsars were buried in the Cathedral of the Archangel until 1712 when the capital was moved to St. Petersburg. There are forty-six tombs in this cathedral and among them the tombs of Ivan the Terrible and his young son Dmitry.

Tsar Cannon is the largest of its kind in the world, with a barrel in excess of five-metres long, weighing over 40 tons and the Tsar Bell, is also the largest in the world. Interestingly, both the cannon & bell have never been used.

The Red Square has always been the main square in Moscow. Here the magnificent cathedrals were built. One of them is St. Basil's Cathedral. The cathedral was built in the 16th century by decree of Ivan the Terrible in honor of the victory over the Mongols at Kazan. It was built on the grave of Basil who was a 'Fool- for- Christ' and was much respected in Moscow at that time. St. Basil's cathedral is unique among Moscow's churches.

Today, the Red square is the centre of Moscow's cultural events, from concerts to military parades.

Novodevichy Convent is one of the most famous historical places of interest in Moscow of the 16th century. This architectural ensemble was completed at the end of the 17th century and till now remains one of the best of Russia. The territory of the Novodevichy Convent is also a cemetery divided into "old" and "new".

The "old" cemetery is situated on the territory of the convent itself. It is a burial place for the daughter of Ivan the Terrible, sisters of Peter the First, the heroes of the patriotic war of 1812, prominent writers, philosophers, and poets. The "new" cemetery is situated on the south side of the convent. Chekhov, Gogol, Bulgakov, the wives of Stalin and Nikita Khrushchev were buried on the grounds of the new cemetery.

Оборот «there is, there are» в настоящем и прошедшем временах группы Indefinite

1. Предложения с оборотом there is употребляются, чтобы указать наличие или отсутствие какого-либо лица или предмета в определенном месте, т.е. чтобы назвать лицо или предмет, находящийся или отсутствующий в данном (заранее известном) месте. Предложение с оборотом there is строятся следующим образом:

there is	подлежащее	обстоятельство места
There is	a newspaper	on the table.

На столе — газета (есть, имеется, находится, лежит).

Сравним данное русское предложение с предложением: Газета на столе. Характер этих двух предложений совершенно различен: если в предложении На столе — газета сообщается, что в данном месте находится предмет, который по общим свойствам, присущим таким предметам, называется газетой (как бы в ответ на вопрос: Что есть в данном месте?), то в предложении Газета на столе даются дополнительные сведения о данном конкретном предмете, а именно его местонахождение (как бы в ответ на вопрос: Где находится данный конкретный предмет?). Поэтому в английском предложении, которое соответствует русскому На столе — газета, т.е. в предложении с оборотом there is, существительное (подлежащее) в ед. числе употребляется с неопределенным артиклем, а во мн. числе без артикля:

There is a newspaper on the table. На столе — газета.

There are newspapers on the table. На столе — газеты.

(Ответ на вопрос: Что имеется на столе?)

В английском предложении, которое соответствует русскому Газета на столе, подлежащее употребляется с определенным артиклем: The newspaper is on the table. Газета на столе.

(Ответ на вопрос: Где газета?)

2. Если в предложении с оборотом there is имеется несколько подлежащих, то глагол to be всегда согласуется с подлежащим, которое следует непосредственно за ним:

There is a table and five chairs in the room. В комнате стол и пять стульев.

There are five chairs and a table in the room. В комнате пять стульев и стол.

3. В обороте there is слово there не имеет самостоятельного значения, поэтому при переводе на английский язык русских предложений, в которых обстоятельство места выражено наречием там, необходимо в конце предложения употребить наречие there: Там было много студентов.

There were many students there.

4. Для образования вопросительной формы предложений с оборотом there is в настоящем и прошедшем времени группы Indefinite глагол to be в соответствующем времени ставится перед словом there:

Is there a map in your room? В вашей комнате есть карта?

Were there many mistakes in his home-work? В его домашней работе было много ошибок?

При постановке вопроса к подлежащему предложения с оборотом there is употребляются вопросительные местоимения who? и what?, являющиеся подлежащим предложения:

What is there on the wall? Что находится на стене?

Who is there in the room? Кто находится в комнате?

При постановке вопроса к определению подлежащего употребляются вопросительные слова how many, how much и вопросительные местоимения what? и whose?, которые ставятся перед подлежащим:

How many mistakes are there in his sentence? Сколько ошибок в его предложении?

5. Отрицательная форма оборота there is образуется при помощи отрицательной частицы not, которая ставится непосредственно после глагола to be и употребляется:

а) В кратких ответах на общие вопросы:

Is there a map in your room? — No, there is not. В вашей комнате есть карта? — Нет.

При этом в разговорной речи употребляется сокращенная отрицательная форма, в настоящем времени: there isn't, there aren't; в прошедшем времени: there wasn't, there weren't.

б) В предложениях, когда подлежащее имеет при себе определения many, much, enough:

There isn't enough money here. Тут недостаточно денег.

There aren't many things in his room. В его комнате не много вещей.

Теоретическая часть:

Lomonosov was a scientist, a poet, a grammarian. He is often considered the first great Russian linguistic reformer. Lomonosov made substantial contribution to the natural sciences, reorganized the St. Petersburg Imperial Academy of Sciences, established in Moscow the university that today bears his name, and created the first coloured glass mosaics in Russia.

Lomonosov was born on the 19th of November, 1711 near Kholmogory, Russia. He was the son of a poor fisherman. At the age of 10 he took up that work, too. When the few books he was able to obtain could no longer satisfy his growing thirst for knowledge, he left his native village, penniless and on foot, for Moscow. He was 19. His ambition was to educate himself to join the learned men on whom the tsar Peter I the Great was calling to transform Russia into a modern nation.

His bitter struggle began as soon as he arrived in Moscow. It was not an easy task for a man of humble origin to get education at that time. But his exceptional intelligence enabled him in five years to assimilate the eight-year course of study and in 1736 Lomonosov became a student at the St. Petersburg Academy.

Seven months later he left for Germany to study at the University of Marburg and later in Freiberg. He studied Western philosophy and science, the technologies of mining, metallurgy, and glassmaking.

In 1741 he returned to St. Petersburg. Here he worked on «276 Notes on Corpuscular Philosophy and Physics», where he set forth the dominant ideas of his scientific work. In 1745 he was appointed a professor at the Academy. He translated scientific works into Russian and wrote in Latin such important works as «Cause of Heat and Cold», «Elastic Force of Air» and «Theory of Electricity». He recorded more than 4,000 experiments, the results of which enabled him to set up a coloured glass works and to make mosaics with these glasses. His «Discourse on the Usefulness of Chemistry», «Letter to I.I. Shuvalov Concerning the Usefulness of Glass», «Origin of Light and Colours» and the «Ode» to Elizabeth celebrated his fruitful union of abstract and applied science.

To these achievements were added the composition of «Russian grammar» and «Short Russian Chronicle» and the «universal law of nature» — that is, the law of conservation of matter and energy. From 1755 he did a lot for the development of Moscow State University. Appointed a councillor by the Academy in 1757, he undertook reforms to make the university an intellectual centre closely linked with the life of the country. He wrote several works on voyages and navigation in the Northern Seas. His prestige was considerable in Russia, and his scientific works and his role in the Academy were known abroad. He was a member of the Royal Swedish Academy of Sciences and of that of Bologna.

The persecutions he suffered, particularly after the empress Elizabeth's death in 1762 exhausted him physically, and he died in 1765. The empress Catherine II the Great had Lomonosov buried with great ceremony, but she confiscated all the notes in which were outlined the great humanitarian ideas he had developed.

The publication of his «Complete Works» in 1950—1983 by Soviet scholars revealed the full contribution of Lomonosov, who has long been misunderstood by historians of science.

Модальные глаголы «can, may, must»

1. В английском языке имеется группа глаголов, лексическое значение которых не обозначает действия, а выражает отношение к действию, т.е. возможность совершения действия, вероятность совершения действия, необходимость совершения действия и т.д. Такие глаголы называются модальными. Само же действие выражается инфинитивом смыслового глагола, следующим за модальным глаголом. Эту группу глаголов объединяют следующие особенности:

1) У них нет форм инфинитива и причастий. Они употребляются всегда в личной форме при подлежащем и являются в сочетании с последующим инфинитивом сказуемым предложения.

2) Они не спрягаются, т.е. не изменяются по лицам и числам (единая форма для всех лиц ед. и мн. числа).

3) Инфинитив смыслового глагола следует за ними без частицы to.

4) Поскольку модальные глаголы выражают не само действие, а отношение к нему, они не употребляются в форме повелительного наклонения, т.е. не могут выражать побуждение к действию. Из-за отсутствия (недостатка) ряда форм такие глаголы называются также недостаточными.

2. Наиболее употребительными модальными глаголами в английском языке являются:

Can могу, умею для обозначения физической возможности или возможности по обстоятельствам:

may могу, можно в значении имею (имеет и т.д.) разрешение;

must должен, нужно, надо для выражения необходимости, обязательности действия:

My son can already read. Мой сын уже умеет читать.

He can go to the cinema, he has time. Он может пойти в кино, у него есть (свободное) время.

You may go home. Вы можете (вам разрешается) пойти домой.

I must do this work now. Мне нужно (я обязан) сделать эту работу сейчас.

3. Для образования вопросительной формы модальный глагол ставится перед подлежащим:

Can you do it now? Вы можете сделать это сейчас?

Must he stay here too? Ему тоже нужно остаться здесь?

May I take this book? Можно (разрешите) мне взять эту книгу?

4. Для образования отрицательной формы после модального глагола ставится отрицательная частица not:

You must not take this book. Вам нельзя брать эту книгу.

You may not take this book. Вам не разрешается брать эту книгу.

My little son cannot write. Мой маленький сын не умеет писать.

Примечания.

1. Для выражения запрещения действия из двух возможных вариантов maynot, mustnot употребляется чаще mustnot.

2. Отрицание not глаголом can всегда пишется слитно cannot.

В разговорной речи употребляются сокращенные отрицательные формы глаголов can и must: can't, couldn't, mustn't.

5. Краткие ответы строятся таким же образом, как и с глаголами to have и to be:

Can you do it for me? Можете ли вы сделать это для меня?

— Yes, I can. — Да, могу.

— No, I can't. — Нет, не могу.

П р и м е ч а н и е. Поскольку отрицательная форма глагола must употребляется для выражения запрещения и не выражает отсутствия необходимости, для того чтобы передать значение отсутствия необходимости (не нужно, не надо, не должен) употребляется модальный глагол need в отрицательной форме (needn't):

Must I repeat this sentence? — No, you needn't. Нужно ли мне повторить это предложение? — Нет, не нужно.

6. Глагол must не имеет формы прошедшего времени. Глагол may имеет форму прошедшего времени, которая для обозначения разрешения употребляется только при согласовании времен, поэтому будет изучаться позднее.

Форма прошедшего времени глагола can — could:

Yesterday he could go to the theatre. Вчера он мог пойти в театр.

I could not do it last week. Я не мог сделать этого на прошлой неделе.

I am a student, that's why I should read a lot of books. I like reading. Literature means a lot in my life. It helps me to understand other people better. I often analyze the characters of the books and it helps me to understand the world and myself. I read books by different authors: Russian, Ukrainian, German, and English.

My favourite Russian writer is Darya Dontsova. She is a popular Russian writer of modern prose. The works of this author are smart and really interesting. According to her own words, her novels are based on real facts. That arouses the reader's interest and provokes their own analysis of the events. When I got acquainted with her books, I was really impressed by her wit and humor. The main characters often find themselves in a difficult situation, but they do not give up and try to find the way out. Some of the characters of her books are mean and jealous. Some of them are deeply feeling, faithful and tender.

When I read books by my favourite author, Darya Dontsova, I have a feeling that I may meet her characters even in my native town. I always try to watch an interview on TV with Darya Dontsova. She has a happy family that supports her in her work and in difficult situations. She has a strong character, and she is optimistic. Her brain works as a good computer and she knows how to derive benefit from it. I always recommend my friend to read her books.

The North Caucasus is a region of the Caucasus in Southern Russia, bordering Georgia to the south and Krasnodar Krai, Stavropol Krai, and Kalmykia to the north. This region ranks among the world's most exotic and thrilling destinations to visit, boasting of nearly 50 distinct ethnic and linguistic groups in a space roughly the size of the state of Pennsylvania. Today, each of the North Caucasus republics is proving increasingly safe and welcoming to visitors from around the globe.

The Northern Caucasus is one of Russia's most beautiful regions and is most certainly its most mountainous. Its peaks are Europe's and Russia's highest. In the west, near the Black Sea, the climate is subtropical, while the eastern areas near the Caspian Sea are more arid. The most beautiful natural images of this region are of its rushing mountain rivers running through deep gorges. There are also man-made monuments left behind by the mountain people of the region, particularly their fortress-like stone "auls" (mountaintop villages), as well as by former kingdoms such as Alania, Albania, and most famously the Sassanid Empire's ancient fortress at Derbent.

The main resorts of the North Caucasus are Kislovodsk, Mineralnye Vody, Arkhyz, Prielbrusye, Zheleznovodsk and Essentuki. Most tourists stay at campsites, recreational centres or cottages.

Caucasian cuisine includes Armenian, Georgian, Azerbaijani, Kabardian and Ossetian national dishes. It mainly consists of various meat dishes (chachobili, shashlik), hearty soups (shurpa, kharcho) and sauces (tkemali, adzhika). Don't forget to try delicious pastries (koshaki, pakhlava) and famous Georgian wines (saperavi, rkatsiteli) and Armenian cognac.

Regions

Chechnya

A gorgeous and fascinating region, Chechnya should be welcomed onto travelers' lists as the security situation has markedly improved over the last decade. Downtown Grozny is an exceptional site and not to be missed. Inhabited by ethnic Chechens, a Caucasian Muslim ethnic group.

Dagestan

An environment utterly exotic and alien to Russians of the steppe and woodlands, Dagestan boasts astounding cultural diversity, breathtaking and austere mountaintop villages, and an ancient history. Physical threats to safety have diminished profoundly.

Ingushetia

Home of the Ingush people who are closely related to their Chechen neighbors. One of Russia's poorest regions, it nevertheless has created a striking capital city worth the visit. Seek also the remarkable Ingush towers, but leave time for applying for permits—about a month-long process.

Kabardino-Balkaria

Home to Europe's three tallest mountains, this region is mainly inhabited by two Muslim ethnic groups: the Kabardians, a people of Circassian ethnicity, and the Balkars, who are Turkic. Much like its neighbors, its security situation has improved dramatically over the past years. Uneasy travelers need only join a reputable tour operation.

Karachay-Cherkessia

Most famous for its beautiful mountain resort, Dombai; it is home to the Karachay, a Sunni Muslim Turkic people.

North Ossetia

Home of the Ossetes, a Persian-related ethnicity, and one of the few Orthodox Christian mountain tribes of the Northern Caucasus.

Настоящее время группы Perfect

1. Времена группы Perfect (настоящее, прошедшее, будущее) выражают действие, соотношенное (связанное) с каким-либо другим моментом или действием, а именно действие, предшествующее данному моменту или действию.

2. Времена группы Perfect образуются из вспомогательного глагола to have и причастия II смыслового глагола, т.е. по формуле:

to have + Participle II

Глагол to have является изменяемой и подвижной частью этой сложной формы: он является показателем времени, числа, лица; меняет свое место при образовании вопроса. Причастие II является неизменяемой и неподвижной частью этой формы: оно никогда не изменяется и всегда стоит после подлежащего:

He has written a letter to his friend. Он написал письмо своему другу.

Have you written a letter to your friend? Вы написали письмо своему другу?

Употребление настоящего времени группы Perfect. Глагол в настоящем времени группы Perfect обозначает действие уже совершившееся в предшествующий период до момента речи, но имеющее непосредственную связь с настоящим моментом. Эта непосредственная связь с настоящим моментом проявляется двояко:

а) В виде результата действия, приобретенного опыта или знания, имеющих к моменту речи:

He has written a letter. Он написал письмо.

В виде указания периода времени, который еще не закончился, т.е. включает и настоящий момент, например: to-day сегодня, this morning сегодня утром, this week на этой неделе, this month в этом месяце, this year в этом году.

I have seen him this week. Я видел его на этой неделе.

Как видно из этого примера, на русский язык настоящее время группы Perfect в этом значении, как правило, переводится прошедшим временем.

П р и м е ч а н и е. Настоящее время группы Perfect никогда не употребляется, если есть точное указание времени в прошлом, так как это как бы разрывает непосредственную связь с настоящим моментом (т.е. моментом речи) и подчеркивает, что этот факт имел место в прошлом. В таких случаях употребляется прошедшее время группы Indefinite.

Вопросы и задания:

1. Переведите:

Разговор этим кончился, и мы продолжали молча идти друг подле друга. На вершине горы нашли мы снег. Солнце закатилось и ночь последовала за днем без промежутка, как это обыкновенно бывает на юге ... Я велел положить чемодан в тележку, заменить быков лошадьми и в последний раз оглянулся вниз на долину ...

До станции оставалось еще с версту. Кругом было тихо, так тихо, что по жужжанию комара можно было следить за его полетом. Налево чернело глубокое ущелье; за ним и впереди нас темно-синие вершины гор рисовались на бледном небосклоне. На темном небе начинали мелькать звезды, и странно, мне показалось, что они гораздо выше, чем у нас на севере.

(М. Лермонтов. Герой нашего времени)

Naryn-Kala Fortress: the Defender on the Silk Road

Naryn-Kala, the ancient fortress of Russia, was built on the shore of the Caspian Sea fifteen thousand years ago. This is the landmark of Derbent inscribed on the UNESCO World Heritage List. The Citadel guarded the strategically important Derbent passage between the Caspian Sea and the Caucasus Mountains and served as the most important outpost on one of the routes of the Silk Road.

The remains of the defensive walls of Naryn-Kala Fortress have been well preserved in the old part of Derbent. Two high walls stretched from the fortress far to the sea, serving as an external protection for the city and the port, where ships with goods had been arriving. The same walls stretched to the Caucasian Ridge for 40 kilometers, but almost nothing has remained from them. In addition to the walls, towers, gates and fortifications, several other buildings have been preserved in the territory of the fortress: the khan's baths, water tanks with silver impregnations, the underground Zindan prison and a cross-domed church of the V century, which later served as a temple of fire-worshippers and a mosque.

Serious restoration work was carried out in the Fortress Naryn-Kala in celebration of the 2000 anniversary of the city. Different points of the citadel offer views of Derbent and the Caspian Sea. You can buy an entrance ticket and walk around the fortress by yourself, but it is better to book an excursion.

The two peaks of Mt Elbrus – the western at 5642m and eastern at 5621m – bulge nearly 1000m above anything else in the vicinity. This volcanic cone has upper slopes reputedly coated in ice up to 200m thick; numerous glaciers grind down its flanks and several rivers start here. Although many come to climb or ski the mountain, cable cars carrying passengers as high as 3847m make it easy going for those who just wish to admire the view.

Even those well travelled in the world's most stunning wilderness areas can only gape in awe when they first set eyes on Dombay. Wedged into a box canyon at the confluence of three raging mountain rivers, the resort town is surrounded by a soaring crown of jagged, Matterhorn-like peaks of rock and ice, festooned with glaciers and gushing waterfalls.

So great is Dombay's natural majesty that the locals seemingly gave up on the town itself. Frankly, it's an eyesore, dishevelled and dominated by concrete hotels and abandoned Soviet-era complexes. Fortunately, it takes only a brisk walk or ride to put all that behind you. Local operators will do their best to make sure you see the best scenery – on foot, skis, horseback or by jeep or taxi – both here and in the larger town of Teberda, 22.5km northeast of Dombay, beside the Teberda river.

Arkhyz is a popular tourist destination. The mountain resort of Arkhyz is located in Karachaevo-Cherkessia, in the region of the Arkhyz gorge. The resort is surrounded by high, steep mountain ranges. The Arkhyz region is part of the Teberda Reserve. The unique mountainous landscapes and plenty of lakes have contributed to the development of ecological tourism, cycling and horse riding. The resort also provides various opportunities for mountaineering and rafting. You will see the ancient settlements, ancient temples and other attractions in the vicinity of the village of Nizhny Arkhyz.

Essentuki is a resort located in the Stavropol Territory, 17 kilometres from the city of Pyatigorsk. The nature is picturesque and colourful here. In addition to medical and spa treatments, the city has a lot of entertainment facilities: cafes and restaurants, nightclubs and discos, parks and museums, and even parachuting. At the end of August, Essentuki celebrates its birthday, and you can see folk festivities, air shows with aerobatics figures and fountain shows. In the city, there are lots of park areas such as Victory Park and Medicinal Park. You can also swim and sunbathe on the beach at the Big Lake. Mineralnye Vody is another charming resort with a special atmosphere and plenty of amenities. Tourists love walking along its quiet streets and squares, visiting museums, churches and cathedrals and enjoying the mountain views.

Pyatigorsk is the largest city in the region. Here, you can see Mount Beshtau. From the height of its peaks, you can enjoy fabulous panoramic views: almost all the resort towns, a lake, a chain of snow-capped peaks of the main Caucasian mountains. There are more than 40 mineral springs, differing in chemical composition and water temperature.

Теоретическая часть:

Pyatigorsk is a very beautiful town. It is situated in Stavropol region in the North Caucasus. It is situated among five mountains, at the foot of the mountain of Mashuk. Our town has a small river of Podkumok. Pyatigorsk is a historical, cultural and health center. The places of interest are: the Lermontov's grot, the Diana's grot, the Proval with its blue water, which has an interesting legend, the Lermontov house, where the great poet lived, the place of his duel, where he was killed in 1841, the wonderful Lermontov gallery and some other places.

There are many cultural places in our town: the Theater of Music Comedy, many cinemas, libraries, the park of culture and rest and the monuments of old architecture.

The center of the trade is the district of Upper and Under markets. There are many shops and stalls there. A broad way leads there.

Our town is a health center. It has mineral springs, sanatoriums, hospitals, physical-culture centers and others. Many tourists visit our town. They are not only from our country, but also from many other countries.

Lermontov House — the Last Refuge of the Poet

In the minds of many residents of Russia Pyatigorsk is associated with the name of the Russian poet Mikhail Lermontov. He visited Pyatigorsk many times in his childhood and died in a duel at Mashuk Mountain. In the city they preserved Lermontov House, where the poet spent the last months of his life. This modest wooden house with plastered walls and a reed roof was built in 1836 by Captain Chilayev. In summer the house was rented. In 1841 Lieutenant Lermontov settled in it.

Tsvetnik Park: Lermontov Gallery, Yermolov Bath and Diana's Grotto

The picturesque Tsvetnik Park was built in Pyatigorsk in 1829. The architects ennobled the place of natural accumulation of mineral water in such a way. Here limes, chestnuts, maples and poplars are planted. A one-story Lermontov Gallery near the entrance to the park gives the impression of a fairy-tale palace. It was built, however, much later — in 1901. But the blue pavilion made of metal and glass with gothic steeples and stained glass windows immediately became a symbol of the city.

Lenin Square

Lenin Square is the largest in Pyatigorsk. The area is sloping because of the proximity to Mashuk Mountain. Going here for a walk one needs to be ready for climbing the stairs with many steps. A musical fountain is beating in the lower part of the square in front of the city administration. The alley of honorable citizens of Pyatigorsk is behind it.

Gate of Love, Cable Car and the Observation Deck on Mashuk Mountain

Mashuk Mountain in Pyatigorsk rises to 993 meters above the sea level. One can climb at its top in just three minutes by the Cable Car, which has been operating since 1971. In addition to the two stations, there are no supports all the way. Two closed cabins for 20 people always move at the same time to meet each other on a steel cable.

Proval Lake

Proval Lake and the cave are the literary monuments on the map of Pyatigorsk. Its popularity is due to the Soviet writers Ilf and Petrov and their novel «Twelve Chairs». When the main hero of the novel Ostap Bender ran out of money, he with the inherent resourcefulness began selling tickets to the Proval. This episode is reminiscent of the bronze figure of Ostap Bender at the entrance to the grotto. Bronze lions accompany him.

Arbor «Aeolian Harp», Academic Gallery and Lermontov Grotto

The highest point of the Mikhailovsky spur of Mashuk is decorated with the Arbor «Aeolian Harp», built by the architect Giuseppe Bernardazzi in 1831. The «Aeolian harp» or «Air harp» was called a popular musical instrument in Europe, which made sounds in the wind. It was brought to Pyatigorsk and installed in the arbor. In 2008 an autonomous system was mounted in it, and now one can hear the harp sounds in windless weather too.

Выражение долженствования в английском языке

Must должен, нужно, надо для выражения необходимости, обязательности действия:
I must do this work now. Мне нужно (я обязан) сделать эту работу сейчас.

Для образования вопросительной формы модальный глагол ставится перед подлежащим:
Must he stay here too? Ему тоже нужно остаться здесь?

Для образования отрицательной формы после модального глагола ставится отрицательная частица not: You must not take this book. Вам нельзя брать эту книгу.

Для выражения запрещения действия употребляется must not.

Поскольку отрицательная форма глагола must употребляется для выражения запрещения и не выражает отсутствия необходимости, для того чтобы передать значение отсутствия необходимости (не нужно, не надо, не должен) употребляется модальный глагол need в отрицательной форме (needn't):

Must I repeat this sentence? — No, you needn't. Нужно ли мне повторить это предложение? — Нет, не нужно.

Глагол must не имеет формы прошедшего времени.

Вопросительная и отрицательная формы прошедшего времени от to have to образуются с помощью вспомогательного глагола to do в прошедшем времени, т.е. did:

Did you have to go there last night? Вам пришлось пойти туда вчера вечером?

My friend brought me the necessary books, and I didn't have to go to the library yesterday. Мой товарищ принес мне необходимые книги, и мне не надо было идти вчера в библиотеку.

В английском языке глагол to be последующим инфинитивом смыслового глагола имеет модальное значение долженствования, необходимости, вытекающей из взаимной предварительной договоренности, заранее намеченного плана, программы, приказа, расписания и т.д., тогда как глагол to have to последующим инфинитивом имеет модальное значение вынужденной, вызванной обстоятельствами необходимости.

Сравните:

I was to do this work alone, but as there was little time left before the end of the month I had to ask Comrade Nikitin to help me.

Я должен был сделать эту работу один, но, поскольку до конца месяца оставалось мало времени, мне пришлось попросить тов. Никитина помочь мне.

Глагол to be в модальном значении с последующим инфинитивом употребляется в настоящем и прошедшем времени группы Indefinite. Поскольку настоящее время глагола to be последующим инфинитивом по смыслу относит действие к будущему, это сочетание в будущем времени не употребляется:

I am to leave for Leningrad tomorrow. Я должен завтра уехать в Ленинград.

Сочетание глагола to be в прошедшем времени с инфинитивом Indefinite обозначает действие, которое должно было произойти в прошлом, причем это сочетание не показывает, произошло ли действие или нет. Это можно выразить контекстом:

I was to see off my friend last night, but I couldn't as I was very busy.

Я должен был проводить своего друга вчера вечером, но не мог, так как был очень занят.

(Действие не произошло).

I was to see off my friend at five o'clock yesterday and I had to take a taxi to belate.

Я должен был провожать своего друга в пять часов вечера вчера и мне пришлось взять такси, чтобы не опоздать.

(Действие произошло).

Сочетание глагола to be с инфинитивом переводится на русский язык словами: должен, должен был, нужно было, предстоит, например:

Didn't he tell you what you were to do? Разве он не сказал вам, что вам нужно было делать?

He is to leave for Kiev today. Ему предстоит выехать в Киев сегодня.

Часто это сочетание переводится на русский язык просто настоящим или будущим временем:

The train is to start in five minutes. Поезд отходит через пять минут. (по расписанию)

П р и м е ч а н и е. Иногда глагол tobec последующим инфинитивом страдательного залога имеет модальное значение возможности, а в отрицательной форме — невозможности, запрещения: This book is to be found in any shop. Эту книгу можно найти в любом магазине.

Вопросы и задания:

1. Переведите на русский язык:

1) The authorities bought Lermontov House in 1912 and opened a museum in it. To the 150th anniversary of the poet in 1964 the house was completely restored. Now we see the house as it was at the time when the poet rented it together with his friend and close relative Alexey Stolypin. One can see a travel trunk, a narrow bed, a desk and silver household utensils in the rooms.

In 1973 all Lermontov places in Pyatigorsk were united in State Museum-Reserve of M.Y. Lermontov. So, a whole museum quarter formed around the Lermontov House, which includes the Verzilin's house. The poet often visited these neighbors, and it was in their house that the quarrel broke out, which ended in a duel. Now the Verzilin's house exhibits documents, autographs and drawings of the poet. Lermontov's portraits and illustrations for his works are collected in the former house of Chilaev.

2) The building of the Yermolov bath is behind the Lermontov Gallery in the Tsvetnik Park. The first baths were built by order of General Yermolov in 1820 to treat military servicemen. In 1880 a new building appeared from red and yellow brick. The wings form a cross if one looks at them from the mountain. The towers are like domes and are associated with the church. At the beginning of the 20th century the Yermolov baths were the main mud baths in Pyatigorsk. Today there is a clinic here.

In the Soviet era a park on the Hot Mountain was added to the Tsvetnik Park. At its foot in 1829 a small cave with two columns was arranged in honor of the first ascent of Elbrus. Later they installed a sculpture of the Goddess Diana and called it all Diana's Grotto. There is a semicircular bench inside the cave. A week before his death the Russian poet Mikhail Lermontov and his friends arranged a dancing party on the platform in front of the grotto.

3) A monument to the leader of the world proletariat stands on Lenin Square. The military memorial begins behind his classic figure in a waving coat. The so-called «Bowl of Tears» in the form of a rectangular basin is in the center of the memorial. In 1972 the Eternal Flame was lit in front of the cup. In 2008 to the left of the Eternal Flame plates were installed with the names of Heroes of the Great Patriotic War — the natives of Pyatigorsk. Higher is the monument to the hero of the war of 1812 General Yermolov on horseback. The small cascade fountain completes the composition of the square.

4) People climb to the top of Mashuk Mountain for the observation deck with a panoramic view of Pyatigorsk and the mountains of the Caucasus Mountain Range. The top of the mountain is decorated with a TV tower, which received dynamic illumination in 2007. In 2015 a cascade fountain appeared on the observation deck. Here there are columns with arrows indicating the direction to different cities. Anyone can beat the arrow with the name of any city. He just needs to buy a wooden pointer in the souvenir department at the station.

If one goes down from the top on foot, in the middle of the road he will meet the Gate of Love or the Gate of the Sun. This is an observation deck with a stone arch. According to the recent tradition, the newlyweds come here and the groom carries his bride through the Gate of Love.

5) The lake was called Proval (breakdown) by Academician Johann G ldenst dt, who first described it in 1773. The cave near the lake was formed as a result of the earthquake and originally had a shape of a funnel. The tunnel for access to the Proval Lake was breached in 1858. The water in the lake bright blue with the smell of sulfur and warm from 26 to 42   C, is considered to be curative, but one cannot swim in it: the observation deck has a grating. The icon of the Great Martyr and Healer Panteleimon is opposite the niche. Tourists go to the cave and lake through a small backlit tunnel which leads to the goal.

6) Enjoying the best view of Pyatigorsk, which opens from the Arbor «Aeolian Harp» one can go down to the Lermontov Grotto. This natural cave was decorated by Bernardazzi brothers in 1851. Lermontov loved this secluded grotto and made it a meeting place for the heroes in his famous novel «The Hero of Our Time». Then the grotto was named after the poet.

The Academic Gallery stands below the slope on the site of the first drinking spring. The spring was so popular that next to the well they first put a wooden house with a bath, and later a gallery made of canvas for the convenience of those who were resting. In 1850 it was replaced by a stone gallery in the style of the Italian Renaissance with a pump room. Since 1995 a museum of insects has been opened in the building. Here one can see snakes, lizards, scorpions, spiders and butterflies not only from the Caucasus region, but also from Australia, the USA and South America.

2. Расскажите о своих любимых местах Пятигорска.

3. Поставьте в прошедшем и будущем времени следующие предложения, изменяя соответственно обстоятельство времени:

1. You must move to another town. 2. They must wait for us here. 3. The airplane must land at once. 4. The boys must run to get to the station in time.

4. Поставьте вопросы к выделенным словам и предложениям:

1. We had to come back home because Mary felt bad and could hardly walk (1). 2. The child will not be able to drink such hot milk (1). 3. You will have to look through all these articles before you begin to work at your report (2). 4. We had to speak in a whisper because Father was asleep (1). 5. Peter looks like his brother (1). 6. The teacher had to explain the difficult rule to his pupils once more (2).
